WHY I'M A FEMINIST

Most feminists don't care much for me even though I am, more often than not, defending the causes they most cherish. Case in point: a woman's right to choose. It is a well-known fact that I favor a woman's right to control her own reproductive organs. The state has no business interfering with this basic freedom.

That's why I am sounding the alarm now! Even as you read this, right-wing Republican forces are moving once again to curtail legal abortions, this time with stealth maneuvers rather than their usual shrill bullying. Knowing that a head-on confrontation over the abortion issue would fail, last July, right-wing Representatives in the House narrowed their focus to successfully ban only late-term abortions. It might have ended there, were it not for last November's Democratic defeat in the Senate. Given the Republicans' slim but potentially significant 51 to 48 advantage, it now seems likely that such a ban will pass in that august body as well.

The Religious Right chose to attack this particular aspect of abortion because it's the most vulnerable; even the staunchest advocate of choice flinches when the issue of late-term abortions is raised, but the Religious Right sees this only as an opening shot. Their intention is to strip away the rights women have gained over the last 30 years salami-tactics-style (as G. Gordon Liddy would say), one slice at a time, until finally all abortions are illegal.

The last time they went after late-term abortions, then-President Clinton agreed to pass such legislation if the right wing would only put in an amendment allowing for its use when a mother's health was at risk. Rather than agree to this reasonable compromise, the Right rejected Clinton's offer, thus prompting a Presidential veto. Unfortunately, it looks like this new bill will have no provision for either the health or life of the mother.

Clearly, the people who are now running the country have no regard for women or even for the wishes of the American people. So if you want to save our country from becoming a repressive theocracy, now is the time to speak out.

As for why I'm a feminist, it's because I love and respect women. I know their rights must be protected. So what if I disagree with feminists on some issues? These squabbles are normal within any political or social group.

Ideal Subscriber

I am a 19-year-old girl who is in love with HUSTLER. The first issue I saw was my uncle's copy. When he found out that I had seen it, he told me I shouldn't be looking at it and that it was for grown-ups. I knew at that moment that I couldn't wait to be older, just so I could see those beautiful women again. No other X-rated magazine has ever appealed to me. God bless you, HUSTLER; you remind me that I'm living in a fine country. —K. M.

Richmond, Virginia

Women like you are what make this such a fine country. Why didn't you send photos?

This Month's Rant

In a previous HUSTLER, I turned to the Bits & Pieces page and was taken by the "Shadow Puppets" layout ("Shadow Puppets: The Truth About Justice and the American Way," June 2002). Until I saw that piece, I felt as if I was the only pessimist/antagonist left in the country. Now it dawns on me that if the world (especially the USA) were full of only positive, happy people who like things the way they are, then there would be nothing worth living for in this "great nation" of ours. I can't emphasize my enthusiasm enough for people or articles such as "Shadow Puppets" that take brutal, yet very truthful, stabs at how corrupt and crooked our legal system and corporate structure are. As most Americans tend to dwell in their pathetic, sitcom-addicted lives, I stand out as a rebel of sorts that gets off more by masturbating to a fine HUSTLER pictorial than by engaging in or supporting any overrated, overexpensed, bandwagon-induced professional/corporate entity of U.S. bullshit. Thank you very little. —R. H.

Evergreen, Colorado

You're welcome.

Praise for Palast

Thank you for the excellent interview with Greg Palast (Greg Palast: Beat the Press, March). Mr. Palast is right; what happened in Florida in 2000 was a coup. The sad part is that the corporate-owned media refuses to report it. The only thing they report are feel-good Bush stories. When George appears in public, the protesters are sent to "First Amendment zones" miles away. The Republicans are stripping away the Bill of Rights. Thank you, HUSTLER, for this excellent interview, reviving the Publisher's Statement and LarryFlynt.com. We need to get the truth about Bush out there. —K. N.

Perry, Iowa

Many thanks. You can look forward to more hard-hitting HUSTLER interviews with people the mainstream media won't touch in upcoming issues. We are committed to bringing you the ideas and opinions that you won't find anywhere else.

I Dream of Jana

What are you people trying to do, give your readers perpetual hard-ons? Last month it was Dreama (Dreama: Incredible Asset, February), now this month it is Jana (Jana: Ride 'em Cowboy, March). Your magazine is off to one hell of a start this year; I just hope you don't run out of pussy of that quality before the year is done. I don't care how you do it, you have to get those two in a girl/girl layout, guy/girl layout or movie. Keep up the good work. —S. W.

via Internet

HUSTLER is dedicated to always raising the bar by publishing the hottest pictorials to be found anywhere. Here's another look at Jana that should keep you up for more.

JANA: TOP-QUALITY PINK

Dan Rather Watch

Way back when, it was the thing to say, "I only read Playboy for the articles!" I'm finding more often than not that I look forward as much to what's written between the pictorials in your magazine as I do to the ladies themselves. Your "Dan Rather Suicide Pool" (March) and Greg Palast interview rank up there with your exposure of the hypocritical dildos in Congress. You should be rewarded for these efforts! No one else is doing it. Speaking of Playboy, don't you feel guilty about being scooped on that Halle Berry interview? I read the whole thing, and what I remember

People who say they buy Playboy for the photos are also lying.

Pooch Fucker II

What's the deal with all the bad-mouthing of pooch fuckers (HUSTLER Feedback, March)? Most male dogs will screw about anything around: That's consenting. If a dog jumps your ass, he's in charge of what he wants. Sure, he's breaking the laws of nature and man alike, just as the gays and lesbians do. Hell, I would screw a dog before I'd screw some of the nasty-looking women in your magazines. Also, despite what you said about fucking animals, your magazine sure has a lot of cartoons of humans fucking animals. I really like reading and looking at them. They're the main reason I buy your magazine. There are many people who have sex with animals and don't hurt or abuse them the way some humans do to their spouses. —Wolfie
via Internet

Although our cartoonists often draw humans engaging in sex with animals, they do so for purely satirical reasons (we hope). The next time a big German shepherd decides to jump you and ream your ass though, feel free to consent.

Allah-ta Bull

My Christian neighbor showed me your magazine. In it, I saw a woman with Arab features. For what you did, you will be punished here on Earth and by almighty Allah. There is still time to obey our laws and religion. We are merciful people, honest people, hard-working people—but not forever. Wake, sinners! Allah is great. —R. M.
Michigan City, Indiana

You're offended by our photosets? Haven't you seen our Muslim-themed cartoons?

Stinky Bush

Thank you, HUSTLER, for letting the rest of the civilized world know what we in Florida have known for years: Jeb Bush is an asshole (Asshole of the Month, February). I always thought that in order to understand what an asshole of a governor he is, one had to live here. You expressed the thoughts of free-thinking Floridians everywhere by awarding the Jebmeister your order of sphincterhood. One can only hope that copies of HUSTLER will not be seized by Jeb's goons the way they seized the election. —S. L.
Pinellas Park, Florida

Any individual with a sense of smell can identify Jeb's reek as that of an Asshole. HUSTLER just likes to remind readers who are overwhelmed by the general stench of the U.S. government.

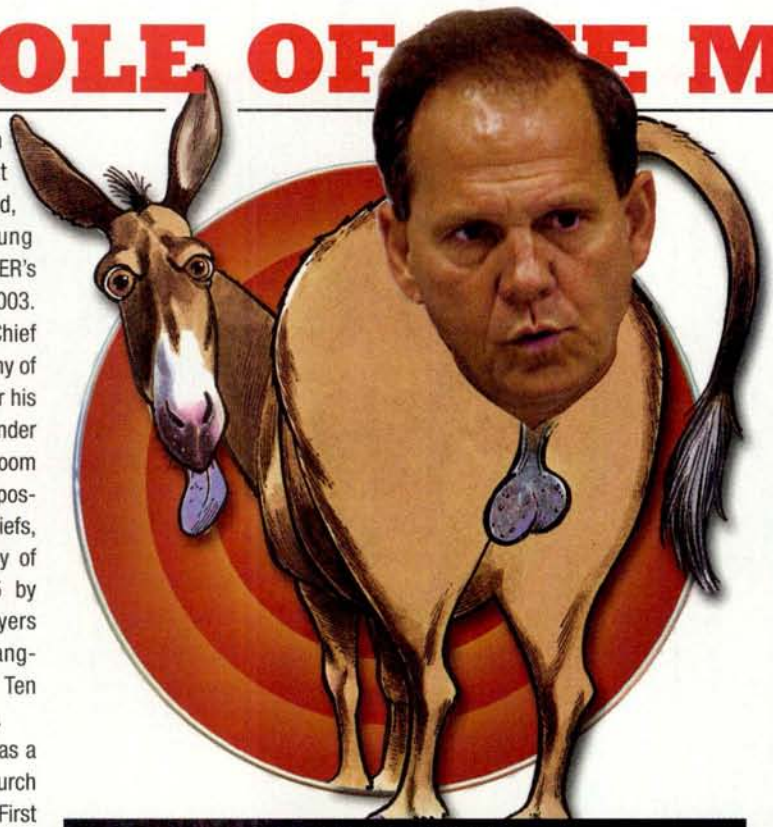
ASSHOLE OF THE MONTH



ROY MOORE

For violating the Eleventh Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Be a Shrill, Backhanded, Ignorant, Turd-Flecked Dung Chute," Roy Moore is HUSTLER's Asshole of the Month for June 2003.

Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice Moore would be unworthy of national attention, were it not for his incessant zealotry. Suffering under the delusion that a public courtroom is an appropriate forum for imposing his personal religious beliefs, Moore first sparked the dismay of his saner colleagues in 1995 by opening his trials with prayers led by local clergy and hanging a wooden plaque of the Ten Commandments above his dais.

Recognizing Moore's actions as a breach of the separation of church and state established in the First Amendment, a Circuit Court judge ordered Moore to cease the prayer sessions and remove the plaque. Moore, taking a pick-and-choose attitude toward the laws he's sworn to uphold, refused to comply, issuing a barrage of bullshit to rationalize his contempt.

"I consider it my duty to acknowledge God," Moore spat, declaring that he was "on a personal mission from God for one purpose—to acknowledge God."

As a jurist, Moore's duty is to impartially preside over the cases before him. If Righteous Roy feels that he was born to evangelize, both he and Alabama's legal system would be better served if he vacated the bench and joined the clergy.

Disregarding the millions of Americans whose faith lies outside the Judeo-Christian sphere, Moore argued that our laws are based on the Ten Commandments. Only a man high on his own rectal fumes would suggest that our Founding Fathers intended to include "I am the Lord thy God" and "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" in the laws of a country dedicated to religious liberty.

Laying it on thick, 'Rhoidhead Roy posited that, without laws based in Scripture, America would soon allow unions between "a man and a sheep."

"Let me ask you this," burbled Moore. "Are you going to pay your tax money to support a man and a sheep on welfare? Hmmm?"

This would seem to be one of Roy's more moderate beliefs. Consider some of the zealots Moore has allied himself with in his Ten Commandments crusade, including radio personality Rev. Pete Peters, who, aside from his links with the Aryan Nations, is a proponent of the Christian Identity movement, which preaches that blacks and Jews are descendants of the devil. Or evangelist George Grant, who advocates the death penalty for gays.

Moore is one hallucination away from surpassing his pals, judging by his February 2002 ruling in a child custody case between a lesbian mother and an admittedly abusive father. Loading his legal opinion with quotes from Genesis and Leviticus, Moore wrote, "The homosexual conduct of a parent...creates a strong perception of unfitness that alone is sufficient justification for denying that parent custody."

Upping the ante in July 2001, Moore installed a 5,280-pound marble monument depicting the Ten Commandments in his courthouse, sneaking the washing-machine-sized monstrosity in at night without consulting his judicial peers. Roy's delusions of grandeur experienced a similar upgrade. While his lawyers presented the ridiculous argument that it's "not reasonable" to interpret the two-ton tribute to the Decalogue as an endorsement of religion, Moore blustered that nothing less than "the future of the nation" rested on his monument.

Can America afford a future molded by Moore's twisted, theocratic vision? Exploiting the tragedy of September 11, 2001, Moore put a blame-America-first spin on the death of 3,000 citizens during a January 2003 speech to the National Clergy Council. Tying the destruction of the World Trade Center to the biblical words of Isaiah, he babbled, "You see, there are consequences when we turn away from our source of strength."

Perhaps attendees were too aghast to tell Moore that the Twin Towers fell because a bunch of fundamentalist shitheads much like himself slammed a couple of airplanes into them, and that the main difference between the hijackers' fanaticism and Moore's own is a matter of ambition. HUSTLER, however, does not hesitate to decree Roy Moore an Assholy Roller.

FARTS IN THE WIND

Michael Bloomberg: During a Rolling Stones concert in January at Madison Square Garden, New York mayor and budding fascist Bloomberg reportedly told cops to issue summonses to the band because guitarists Keith Richards and Ron Wood were smoking cigarettes onstage. How could Bloomberg even tell, with his head lodged so far up his Asshole?

Donald Rumsfeld: Defense Secretary Rumsfeld, attempting to downplay speculation about the possibility of reviving the military draft, managed to spit in the eye of every U.S. veteran who ever answered his country's call to service. Scummy Rummy told reporters that draftees "added no value, no advantage, really, to the United States armed services over any sustained period of time." In Vietnam alone, more than 20,000 draftees made the permanent sacrifice of their lives, something only an Asshole would take for granted.

MTV PLUGS JIZZ RAGS

When stray splooge, she-jizz or any other errant bodily fluid needs cleaning, the cast of MTV's *The Real World Las Vegas turns to Pleasure Wipes. On a recently aired episode of the program, cast member Steven and his gay friend John discussed the product, which is touted by the manufacturer as "the first scented adult wipes, intimately designed for him and her." "What is a Pleasure Wipe?" John queried upon yanking the product from a gift basket in the posh Real World living quarters. "Whatever it is, I want one."

Those in need of moistened crotch wipes (vanilla or mango scented) can purchase Pleasure Wipes in single quantities or a 25-count tub. Visit www.PleasureWipes.com for more information.

WEB SITE OF THE MONTH

ROTTEN

Rotten is about as disturbing as Web sites come, and they have the hate mail and legal threats to prove it. Graphic pictures of decaying corpses, crime scene photos, autopsies and accident victims are Rotten's specialty, but the site's Fuck of the Month feature presents the kind of disgusting, odd and over-the-top hard-core images that HUSTLER has been known to print. The faint of heart should steer clear of this grotesque site, but those with a strong stomach and healthy dose of morbid curiosity will be fascinated by the horrific images on display at www.rotten.com.

NEWSBITES

Ah, So Young: Japanese businessman Mikano Nakajima was arrested after filming 130 high-school girls, aged 15 to 17, in various states of undress for a series of popular voyeur tapes. The girls responded to an ad offering part-time work at 20,000 yen (approximately $160) a day. So many underaged models answered the call that Nakajima had no choice but to cut the cash offer in half. When questioned about posing, one girl's blasé response was, "I just wanted to make some pocket money."

Room Service: The Palms, a hotel just off the Las Vegas strip, has added dancing poles and strobe lights to several of its pricier suites. "If it's going to happen in the room," the hotel's owner, George J. Maloof Jr., says of the newly installed stripping paraphernalia, "you might as well accommodate them."

Piece in the Middle East: Yussef and Fatima, the first Israeli-Arab porn film, has inspired angry Muslims to chase and beat the beleaguered stars of the low-budget XXX video. Amal Kashua, a 38-year-old mother of eight, took the job because she was short on money (or so she claims). Amal's family endorses the vigilante death sentence placed on the couple's heads; her own brother told Israeli television, "If I could, I would eat them both raw and spit them out."

Thish Is Entrapamament!: Police in Fairfax County, Virginia, are enforcing their state's .08 alcohol limit by dragging people out of bars, giving them sobriety tests and charging them with public drunkenness if they fail. Officials claim the tactic isn't uncommon and is intended to prevent drunk-driving-related fatalities. When asked to comment, one drunk declared, "I hate these spiders; please get them off me."

Finally: HBO has announced that the sixth season of Sex and the City will be its last. There's no word yet as to which unfunny, overrated, pseudofeminist "comedy" series our nation's middle-aged, middle-class girls-gone-wild will embrace next.

HUSTLER SIGHTING: POOLHALL JUNKIES

Writer/director Mars Callahan's debut film Poolhall Junkies boasts a stellar cast: Chazz Palminteri, Rick Schroder, Rod Steiger and Christopher Walken star in the gritty billiards drama. The flick's stylish wardrobe is also noteworthy—a HUSTLER T-shirt, worn by Callahan as the movie's lead pool shark, shares screen time with the aforementioned cinema heavyweights. Look for Poolhall Junkies in a theater near you. Snag HUSTLER-wear at www.shophustler.com.

THIS IS HER... NOW

There are many things to love about Jennifer Lopez, her wooden acting, godawful singing and marriage of the month notwithstanding. HUSTLER's favorite aspect of the current "it" girl is that we don't have to use electronic trickery to see the starlet in compromising positions. Photographer Jason Kirk recently snapped this genuine J.Lo upskirt. ¡Que rica!

CHEEKY CARTOONS

John Stagliano's Buttman Comics, a perfect-bound erotic art collection with a $14.95 price tag, further exposes the porn maven's obsession with the derriere. Though said rumps are only ink and paint, their visceral nature is sure to elicit more sticky substances. Particularly inspiring are the oversized posteriors in Rudy's "Big Butt" comics and Ricky Carralero's hyperrealistic treatment of Bettie Page with anal beads bursting from her hinder. Any ass lover without this 164-page tome in their library ought to feel bummed.

Celebrity Fantasy

WHAT WOULD nicole kidman LOOK LIKE WITH A DICK IN HER MOUTH?

While the former Mrs. Cruise has garnered several nominations for "Most Desirable Female" from the MTV Movie Awards, her sexual appeal has long eluded us. In an effort to be fair, HUSTLER conducted this experiment and discovered that, with the proper adornment, Nicole isn't entirely without allure. Given the starlet's questionable marriage to Tom Cruise, it's uncertain whether Kidman has actually ever sucked a dick, but Practical Magic definitely blew.

VIAGRA FOR MASOCHISTS

The Boner Pill You Shove Up Your Cock

BY JIM GOAD

Is a painfully robust, two-hour erection worth jamming a plastic tube two inches down your dick hole?

The makers of a plastic "urethral suppository" called MUSE want you to believe it is. They promise that their product offers a "new and unique approach to treating erectile dysfunction," a vow they faithfully keep with regard to the "unique" part.

An acronym for Medicated Urethral System for Erection, MUSE is manufactured by Vivus Inc., which hungers for a slice of the pharmaceutically enhanced-erection pie that has now been almost entirely gobbled up by Pfizer's Viagra.

The most striking difference between MUSE and Viagra lies in its administration: While Viagra is a pretty blue pill that is comfortably swallowed with water, MUSE is a pointy plastic device, which you must shove down your cock in order to inject a tiny pellet.

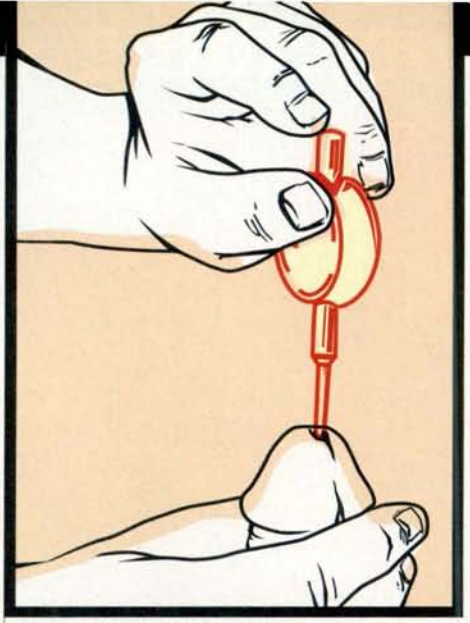
At first, MUSE seems more like the stuff of political torture than bedroom hijinks. Interrogators force objects down people's dicks to convince them to spill nuclear secrets, not to put them in the mood for makin' whoopee.

Few males are enthusiastic about the idea of inserting anything down their fragile, pink urethral tunnels. Anyone who has endured the painful, naked humiliation of a swab gonorrhea test or, say, a catheterization, will attest that being violated in this manner is an instinctively unpleasant scenario for any sane man and his penis to ponder.

This is why MUSE is such a curious product. It's a mystifying blend of an attractive promise (a robust, veiny erection brimming with gusto) delivered in a horrifying package.

Apart from its shocking method of delivery, MUSE employs a different active ingredient than Viagra's sildenafil citrate. MUSE's magic boner potion is alprostadil, a natural substance abundant in seminal fluid, which aids in the erection-producing process. Alprostadil has a relaxing effect on spongy erectile tissue, which allows increased blood flow to produce a stiffy.

Unlike sildenafil citrate, alprostadil can't be swallowed in a pill form. While pill-based "systemic" drugs are deemed kosher to course through your entire system, alprostadil is only considered safe and effective when applied to the target area; in this case, the penis.



Doctors have been prescribing alprostadil for their patients for years—long before Viagra—but until MUSE hobbled into the market with its do-it-yourself boner-making kit, the only way to administer the substance was via a syringe-needle injection through the skin, into the dick's limp shaft.

Through all the, um, proper channels, a single, foil-wrapped MUSE injector recently landed in my lap. The intraurethral medication was accompanied by a booklet called Restore the Feeling, published by the manufacturer, which claims that MUSE is at least as effective as Viagra, and possibly more so.

Restore the Feeling features a drawing of a positively radiant, middle-aged couple on the cover, their hearts aglow at the thought of a stiff dick resurrected like Lazarus from the grave. The booklet boasts glazed-donut passages about "restoring sexual intimacy," which is a politely dishonest way of saying "inducing your first hard-on in 15 years so your wife doesn't have to fuck the plumber to get her rocks off anymore."

As someone who might not technically be a masochist, but who certainly makes unhealthy, self-defeating decisions in life, I decide to give MUSE a try. I'm a self-starter; I'm all for improving my attitude and erections. I become a voluteer chimp for this daring new sexual pharmaceutical.

My unwitting female guinea pig is my girlfriend, a cute, young Jewish gal. One early summer night, as we lay about in my plush Portland, Oregon, penthouse awaiting another round of (continued on page 160)

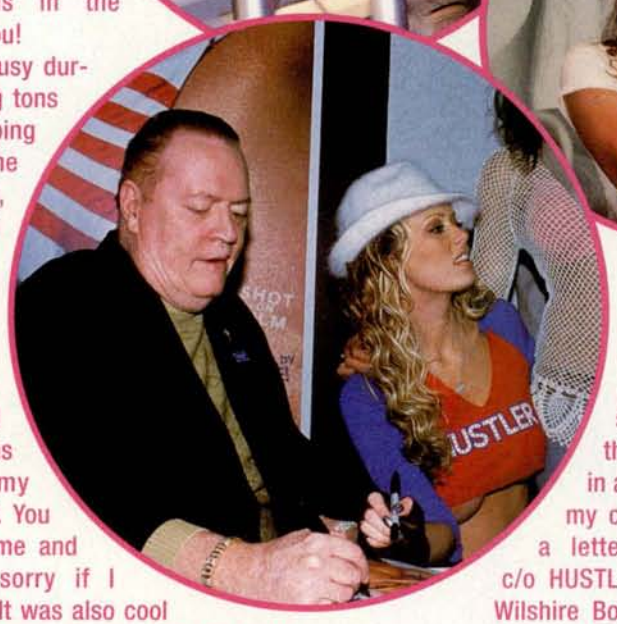
Jenna Tales

By Jenna Jameson

Hi, and welcome back to my column! I hope you enjoyed the first installment of Jenna Tales that ran in the special 32-page insert that came with May's HUSTLER. I just got back from the 2003 Adult AVN Expo and awards show in Las Vegas, and I had a blast!

The most exciting news is that the first ClubJenna releases both received awards: I Dream of Jenna won for the Best All-Girl Sex Scene in a video, and Briana Loves Jenna won two honors for being the top-selling and top-renting tape of 2002. The trophies that Briana Loves Jenna won are extra special, because they wouldn't have been possible if I didn't have the best fucking fans in the world—so, thank you!



I was insanely busy during the Expo, giving tons of interviews and doing commentary for the Fox News Channel, but I'm glad I had the chance to meet so many fans. I loved taking pictures with you, and I was signing autographs at the Vivid and HUSTLER booths until I thought my hand would fall off. You were all so awesome and patient, and I'm sorry if I missed any of you. It was also cool hanging with Larry Flynt at the HUSTLER booth, although I was sorry to hear he was fighting a bad cold and not feeling very well.

When Scott Fayner from HUSTLERPornGossip.com interviewed me, he also wasn't feeling well, but his hangover was entirely his own fault. (When Max Hardcore says you're out of control, you should take the hint, Scott.) Even so, it was so cute the way Scott could barely keep his sunglasses on his face that I had to laugh and say yes when he asked, "Would you ever sleep with a reporter from HUSTLER?" (In your dreams, Scott.) There was a lot of fun stuff to see around the convention, although I'm not sure how they settled on the proportions of the "Jiggle Me Jenna" doll that I saw in one display.

During the Expo, I hooked up with Aria Giovanni, and you'll be glad to hear that we're talking about doing a movie together. I'll update you here as soon as I have more details, but in the meantime, you should also know that I recently shot my very first bondage movie for director Ernest Greene. It was a total trip, and Ernest was really fun to work with.

Although Vegas rocked, ClubJenna.com recently had problems with some anonymous hacker assholes who were spreading a computer virus by sending it out as a bogus Jenna Jameson screen saver. If you receive an e-mail containing "sexy_jenna.scr," do not open it, and be sure to trash it right away. I even had to contact the FBI about tracking down the jerks who are responsible for the cyberterrorism.

On a cheerier note, I'm planning to do a book tour for How to Make Love Like a Porn Star; you can check in here for where I'll be appearing. Don't be shy if there's something you'd like to see in an upcoming edition of my column. Just send me a letter at Jenna Tales, c/o HUSTLER Magazine, 8484 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 900, Beverly Hills, CA 90211.

XoXo,
Jenna

BORED IN THE U.S.A.

By Sharon Bass

The candid revelations of three housewives and one guy seeking fun and excitement on live chat lines.

Calls to LIVE chat lines are at EXPLOSIVE LEVELS from HOUSEWIVES looking for fun, and wanting to talk to guys (married or not) about anything and everything. We found three women and one guy who frequent a very popular chat line called 1-800-WIFE-CHAT and asked them why they are turning to a phone line for sex. Not surprisingly, the answer to our questions seemed to lead down one common path each time - Uninhibited, Instantaneous SEX, anytime, anywhere.

It's Friday night, "Susan's" husband is away on a business trip and her pussy is dripping wet with no one to satisfy her. Does she reach for the vibrator again? No, first, she picks up the phone and calls 1-800-WIFE-CHAT looking for a man that will make her come over and over again.

"I get so lonely. and bored. Weekends and evenings are so hard on me, so I fix it fast, by finding a horny guy on the chat line who's...REALLY HARD and ready for me!" exclaims "Susan". She continues, "Calling the chat line for no-holes-barred sex talk is a necessity, it's become part of my evening routine."

I GET SO BORED AND LONELY

"Stephanie" will be the first to tell you she has an insatiable need for sex. "My husband is a great guy but he can't keep up with me." she says. "I call 1-800-WIFE-CHAT about 4 times a week. It's free for me, and luckily, Daniel (husband) sort of looks the other way. It works for both of us, I get a different guy when I want and he gets to sleep through the night."

As "Stephanie" spins her wedding band around her finger she admits, "Just cuz I'm married doesn't mean I can't have sex chat with anonymous guys." she says. "It (being married) adds another level of excitement to calling the chat line."

"Stephanie", (married 5 yrs) in Florida admits, "The chat line feeds my continuous need for sex. My husband just can't keep up with me."

UNINHIBITED, INSTANTANEOUS SEX, ANYTIME ANYWHERE!

"I'm a realtor so I'm always working. Scheduling sex with my husband just doesn't work for me. I've been calling the live chat lines for eight months." claims "Kim".

Spontaneous live chat sessions are common in "Kim's" hectic life as a Realtor. "When I want it, I want it NOW! I'm always on the phone so I can get away with it very easily."

"I came five times on one call....while in my car!"

"I admit, when I first called I was nervous, but this guy had me rubbing my clit within minutes. Needless to say, it made me so hot, I've been calling ever since. I can't get enough of talking about sex, some might say I'm addicted to it."

"Kim" says she's made many new "friends" since calling 1-800-WIFE-CHAT. "I actually met one guy for an innocent lunch which made our future calls with him even hotter. It seemed liked I was cheating....but I wasn't. Talk about having your cake and eating it too!

100% REAL HOUSEWIVES

"Yeah, I was skeptical about the girls on chat lines." Says "Will" computer programmer by day, chat line stud by night.

"Turns out, 1-800-WIFE-CHAT is the REAL deal, they're 100% real married chicks, no actresses like other chat lines. I was surprised by how many wives liked to talk sex for hours." Will exclaims. "Some of these chicks can't get enough of me. It only cost's me $1.99 a minute and I get to fuck as many married women as I want!"

> "No actresses like other chat lines."

Warning - 1-800-WIFE-CHAT (1-800-943-3242) is an adult community designed to connect Horny Men with Bored Housewives for explicit adult chat and is intended for people 18 or older only.

MY FIRST TIME

"I am so psyched; this is my first time in HUSTLER! I spent a lot of time getting ready for this—practically my whole life!"

"When I was growing up, I was a really ugly duckling. Guys never asked me out. Hell, they never even looked at me, but I know they're gonna be blown away when they see my hot pussy. This is my first time doing this, and I hope it won't be the last!"

"I laid the ground rules on our wedding night. There's no way I'll ever let Eric put his vile, disgusting sperm in my mouth!"

Nancy Ann is a sexologist and freelance writer contributing insights on the latest sexual techniques, sex toys, and supplemental enhancements in the U.S, Canada, and Europe.

Give Her a Cum-Drenching the ultimate fuck She'll Never Forget

By Nancy Ann

Learning "The Ropes"...

I'd like to share a letter from a reader, about a secret that makes sex absolutely explosive (literally!).

Amy writes:

Nancy, my boyfriend has always been able to satisfy me sexually. With an ample cock-size, average endurance, and creative oral technique, he almost never fails to get me off. But what I experienced the night he returned home from a business trip in Europe was the surprise of my life—a fucking I will never forget, and an orgasm that no man before him has ever come close to equaling.

Since I love to suck cock, the second my boyfriend dropped his luggage I stripped off his clothes and proceeded to please him with my best welcome-home blowjob.

Before long my wet mouth had him pumping gob after hot gob down my throat and on my face. With a fistful of throbbing cock, I held on for dear life as he unloaded his sweet jism; these were "power throbs" that kept launching massive amounts of come. I've never seen anything like it—a man having a multiple! I was so totally turned on being nearly drowned with his super-human load. And it didn't stop there! He stayed erect, throwing me down on the floor and pounding my twat until we both had simultaneous, earth-shattering orgasms, practically causing both of us to pass out. The rest of the evening and throughout the week we fucked ourselves into a frenzy; his recovery time between these supercharged orgasms was that of a teenage boy.

Since that mind-blowing night, all I can think of is sucking and fucking my new "power lover" all hours of the day and night. Finally, curiosity got the best of me, so I asked what had turned him into such a fuck machine. His answer: He had learned "The Ropes."

Turns out my boyfriend had spent an evening in Europe with a Swedish nutritionist and his wife of 20 years. The couple was openly sexual and couldn't keep their hands off each other, so my boyfriend asked them their secret. The nutritionist explained he regularly took a natural supplement, and gave my boyfriend about a month's supply, telling him it would teach him "the ropes" of great sex.

The supply is about to run out, and we want to know where we can buy this incredible enhancement. Do you know if this product is available in the States?

Amy B.
Dallas, Texas

Amy, you and the rest of my readers are in luck, because it just so happens I do know about "the ropes," and the supplement your boyfriend's Swedish nutritionist friend likely shared.

The physical contractions and fluid release during male orgasm can be multiplied and intensified by using a product called Serogen. It's a natural, pure extract specially formulated to trigger better, more powerful orgasmic experiences in men. The best part, from a woman's perspective, is that the motion and experience a man can achieve with Serogen can help stimulate a strong female orgasm.

The term the Swedish nutritionist used is actually fairly common slang for the effect your boyfriend experienced. The enhanced contractions and heightened orgasmic release are often referred to as "ropes" because of the rope-like effect of release during climax.

As far as finding this enhancement in the States, I know of just one importer—Somalab. If you are interested, you can contact the company toll-free at 1-866-SOM-A-LAB or visit the Web site www.somalab.net. Serogen is an all-natural, herbal-derived tablet. Most people I've spoken with have said that just taking three a day has led to the roping effect Amy describes in her letter.

SCREW Loose:

Al Goldstein's Family Feud

GOLDSTEIN COMES OUT; SHOULD WE PUSH HIM BACK IN?

The founder of Screw magazine used to take on mighty corporations and the government. Today, the eccentric pornographer's energies are spent obsessively annoying his son, ex-wife and an ex-secretary.

Report By Richard Jaccoma

Has Al Goldstein finally lost his marbles?

In his sleazy salad days, veteran porn luminary Goldstein, publisher of New York sex tabloid Screw, fought landmark legal battles for the First Amendment, erotic freedom and the right of all Americans to shoot off their mouths whenever they damn well please.

Big Al is now an obese, diabetic, cigar-chomping 67-year-old train wreck. Despite, or perhaps because of, his impending dotage, Goldstein is most definitely not going gentle into that good night. The king of New York sleaze has recently engaged in a series of hideous knock-down-drag-out legal tussles with one of his four ex-wives, his only begotten son and an ex-secretary. These bilious battles are of such remarkably grotesque viciousness that they have landed the porn provocateur in the courts, in jail and—could this possibly be the point of it all?—in the local and national media.

"I'm not going to be everyone's fucking piece of shit. I'm not everyone's butt boy," Goldstein says of his recent bizarre behavior. "The system captured me. If I were anyone else, I would not have been on this track. I believe, in the next year, I'll either die in the Tombs or Riker's [New York City prisons], where they said I'll leave in a pine box or by an assassin's bullet. I said, 'Fuck you, Judge Chun. Fuck you, [Brooklyn DA] Charlie Hynes. Fuck you, [Manhattan DA] Robert Morgenthau. I fuck you all. Your antiquated system killed Lenny Bruce, and it's why Larry Flynt has two bullets in him. You may kill me, but I won't go quietly.' I dare them to try and stop me. I fuck them. I'm not willingly marching into the gas chamber."

During his early years in the porn-publishing trenches, Goldstein bounced off the ropes from 19 separate obscenity busts. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, Screw's groundbreaking freedom-of-the-press victories directly set the stage for generations of highly explicit mass-market adult magazines. Think of Goldstein as the great Earth Mother of

Al with Quigley: "She's not bad...."

"Let me tell you about my current love status," Goldstein says unprompted. "I live in Florida with Linnea Quigley. She's the scream queen, 35 years old, who acted in horror flicks like Return of the Living Dead and Silent Night, Deadly Night."

A woman who acted in horror films having an ongoing sexual relationship with Goldstein? That makes sense.

"In L.A., I live with Katherine, who used to work for Heidi Fleiss. In Amsterdam, my lover is 'The Happy Hooker' Xaviera Hollander. Of course, she's old and Jewish; so our relationship is more for sharing drugs and eating gefilte fish together. In New York, I have a girlfriend who's 27. She works for me, and, if the rest of my staff knew we were having sex, they'd freak out."

The woman in question is a drop-dead gorgeous, East Indian babe with a beautiful face and an incredibly curvaceous body. Meeting her in Goldstein's lair, I particularly admired her shapely legs and her spectacular butt, along with her mango-sized mammaries. The question arises: Why would a world-class woman engage in sex with someone who's more than twice her age and probably three times her weight?

Perhaps Goldstein has some supersecret hoodoo perfume he puts on to make himself irresistible to women. Or possibly, just possibly, money has changed hands. Goldstein, after all, has said that she is an employee.

"All the girls are jealous of each other," Goldstein observes of his world-spanning erotic ensemble, "and everyone hates the 27-year-old."

Having established his impeccable credentials as a pussy hound, Goldstein drops the Big One.

"Are you ready for this?" Al asks. "I've hinted at it in the past, but now I'm ready to come right out and say it: I am bisexual. I have a male lover in Florida, a French guy named Jean-Marc. I think bisexuality is totally natural. I've always said, 'It takes a real man to suck cock.' I'd rather suck cock than be with certain women. I'd rather be with Jean-Marc than my third wife, for instance. But there are still some things I draw the line at: I won't take dick up my ass."

"...but sometimes a fella needs cock." Al with Jean-Marc.

So there you have it; the fearless publisher of Screw, a publication built on a bedrock of heterosexuality, has officially enrolled in the Limp-wristed Legion.

Is the world ready for a Big Gay Al? Why not, as long as we don't have to watch? When informed of Goldstein's move to "the other tribe," ex-Screw staffer Gil Reavill remarked succinctly, "This marks the first time the Fat One has ever been accused of being light in the loafers."

Benz-ed Out of Shape

GOLDSTEIN TAKES MERCEDES FOR A RIDE

You might conclude from Al's obsessive savaging of his ex-secretary, his ex-wife and his ex-son that he no longer has a taste for tussles with targets of greater stature, those multinational monstrosities he once manhandled in a dirty David-and-Goliath fashion. You'd be wrong.

"I have humiliated Mercedes," Goldstein declares. "They don't want me as a customer; so they bought my car back. It's worth $26,000. They're paying a $25,000 bank note and giving me $30,000 so I'll stop attacking them and saying my Mercedes is painted with Jew blood."

An inspection of the pages of Screw reveals that the Mercedes Corporation quite simply may have tried schtupping the wrong customer when they failed to give Goldstein immediate and complete satisfaction in repairing an elusive electrical problem in his Benz. Al's blitzkrieg began, modestly enough, with a series of full-page, Mercedes-mocking ads that superimposed Mercedes-Benz USA president Paul Halata's smiling head on a Nazi troop's body. In one parody ad (pictured below), Halata stands before slave laborers ("Buy a Benz—Kill a Jew").

"No one can fucking believe I got $30,000 from Mercedes," Al says. "I told them, 'This is not Berlin in 1942, and you're not marching me off to Auschwitz.' What really got to them was my running the picture of the president of Mercedes with Hitler fucking him up the ass. They told me I can't divulge the amount of the settlement. Fuck them. Maybe if they'd given me $300,000, I'd be quiet, but knowing me, I'd probably tell you anyway."

American erotic publishing, from whose freakishly fecund womb sprang full-frontal, spread-legged marvels such as HUSTLER, as well as a host of lesser smut rags. Former Screw staffer and current HUSTLER Editorial Director Bruce David describes Al as "one of the great iconoclasts of our time, along with Lenny Bruce and Larry Flynt."

In 1977, Al wrestled Dick Nixon's dirty tricksters to the legal mat in Wichita, Kansas, after being entrapped and hauled out to the corn belt on charges of sending porn through the mail.

In 1986, the smut-peddling satirist beat his chest and howled in lordly triumph after legally trouncing corporate giant Pillsbury in defense of his inalienable right to poke filthy fun at the cookie company's Doughboy mascot.

In 1996, Goldstein made Time Warner his bitch, besting the cable conglomerate in federal court after they attempted to limit the public's access to his cable-TV show Midnight Blue.

Given this decades-long record as a foul-mouthed, free-speech firebrand fighting the feds and battling big business, the target who, at last, laid Al low is rather surprising. Last year, Goldstein went ape-shit on Jennifer Lozinsky, age 30, an ex-employee who was recently described in Screw as a "former secretary and filthy Jew whore." Goldstein claims he was miffed because he caught Lozinsky stealing cash from him—a charge she denies. In retaliation, her portly ex-boss attacked her verbally on his cable-TV show, printed her home address in his magazine and cussed her out over the phone, threatening to "take her down." (Al later said that he meant the threat in the legal, not physical, sense.) Goldstein was tried and convicted on six counts of misdemeanor harassment and given four concurrent 60-day jail sentences. Supposedly due to bureaucratic red tape, Al was forced to begin serving his sentence in the prison on Riker's Island, even though his lawyers had immediately filed an appeal.

Goldstein languished for nine days before they sprung him. Afterward, Al declared that the combination of confinement, horrid food, wrongly dispensed medication and menacing behavior from guards and inmates crushed his spirit. A few weeks after his release, Goldstein did indeed seem to be a broken man.

"They treat terrorists better than me," says Goldstein. "Amnesty International should step in on this. I'm a medical time bomb. I'm an old man. I'm falling apart."

Though all porn lovers should pray it isn't so, the deterioration claim may be true. During a recent interview in Screw's mid-Manhattan headquarters—which resembles a cross between an editorial office and a landfill, missing only the circling seagulls—Goldstein seemed to have ballooned to almost Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade proportions, as if, having vanquished the Pillsbury Doughboy, he wishes to become one himself. All those Havanas he chain smokes can't be doing the old geezer much good either.

Over the years, Goldstein has not endeared himself to the powers that be in New York City government. He attacked mayors and assorted local pols, from former New York City Mayor John Lindsay (named "Dickhead of the Year" in 1971) to "Adolf" Giuliani. Nor was his behavior in court designed to elicit sympathy. He called Judge Daniel Chun, who is of Asian descent, "Judge Chopstick," and on The Howard Stern Show, Goldstein accused

"I'm not going to be everyone's fucking piece of shit. I'm not everybody's butt boy."

Judge Chun of "putting too much starch in my shirt." Al said that a jet should be flown into the office of Brooklyn DA Charles Hynes, and Goldstein wore a mock, striped prison costume to his own sentencing.

First Amendment heavyweight attorney Herald Price Fahringer, who is handling Goldstein's appeal, says Al was put on trial because of who he is, not what he's done. When a prominent gadfly can be convicted of harassment, Fahringer observes, it has wide implications for us all. Claiming that, if this had been an ordinary argument between a boss and an ex-employee, the courts would never have become involved, Fahringer adds, "When it was Al Goldstein doing this—because you've got a person who's been extremely critical of the police and the administration—they use this as a vehicle to go after him. This [antiharassment] statute was never intended for its current use. When Al took the stand, they brought out his Screw editorials and used them against him. If Al has to worry about writing about Giuliani because it can be used in a trial against him, that's terrible. This kind of litigation has, at its core, the limiting of free speech.

"What he went through was a horror. Riker's Island is the toughest jail in the country. We went into court three separate times for bail. He languished there for days. They kept moving papers around. He's a diabetic. It was just terrifying. What we suspect is, word got sent out: 'This guy's bad; let's give him the full treatment.' They really broke him."

Broken or not, Al bounced back. While less bellicose men might have opted for silence at this point, Goldstein launched raging attacks on his third ex-wife, Gena, and their offspring, his only child, Jordan. Al accused Gena of turning Jordan against him. As for his son—or, as Al now prefers to call Jordan, his "dead, gay, bastard ex-son"—Al's miffed because Jordan didn't invite him to his graduation from Harvard Law School, an education that Al paid for with hard-on-earned, hooker-ad dollars wrung from the back pages of Screw. Al is so ticked that, in a case possibly unprecedented in the annals of law, he is suing his son to stop using the Goldstein name. The family feudist is also demanding that his disowned spawn pay back the $700,000 that Al says he spent on his education and return luxury watches he'd asked his "ex-son" to hold during a legal spat with still another former Mrs. Goldstein.

"Here's our new ad on Gena," Al says proudly, displaying a full-page, doctored image of his ex about to fellate a black witch doctor. "[In the ad], Gena Goldstein says, 'I brought AIDS to America.' We have her blowing Jordan; we have her being fucked by Morgenthau. She's a cover line every week. Did she think I wasn't going to do this? The moron dumb cunt thought she'd silence me? Dumb piece of shit. I have her life story coming out. She starts whoring in Hungary...."

Another ad parody depicts a naked Gena embracing a hog. It reads, "Al Goldstein always knew there was something less than kosher about his third wife Gena's cunt. She was (and still is) a dirty pig fucker!!!"

Other ads and editorials focus directly on Jordan, with doctored, collaged photos depicting him engaged in gay intercourse, bestiality and sex with his mother. One ad entitled "Nigger Lovin' Jews!" shows both Jordan and Gena copulating with African-Americans or, as the copy puts it, "spreading their brand of racial harmony." Still another Goldstein masterpiece offers readers a reward for sending Al information about Jordan's current home address and new place of employment, information that Jordan seemingly does not wish to share with his "former" father.

Given the intensity of these attacks, reconciliation with either Al's ex-wife or his son seems out of the question. Here's Goldstein's response to the possibility of rapprochement with the fruit of his loins: "He didn't invite me to his graduation. He could never repay me for that indignity. Here's what he can do: Give me $700,000 back that I spent on his education and change his name. There's nothing else he can do. Nothing. John Gotti's daughter was proud of her father even though he was a murderer. I was never a murderer; I'm in the sex business. I'd rather be in the sex business than work for Enron or sell cigarettes to high-school kids."

"They treat terrorists better than me. Amnesty International should step in on this."

Gena finally had Al arrested on "aggravated harassment" charges last summer. In January of this year, Al pleaded guilty to stalking and harassing his former spouse in a deal that spared him from jail time. "I won't harass her anymore, but I hope she and my son rot in hell," Goldstein announced just after the court appearance, which only serves as further evidence that Goldstein seems genetically incapable of silencing himself. Besides, he tends to see the current stakes in grander, yet gloomier, terms than ever before.

"Fuck it. You know, we die alone. I'd rather have the friends I have," the lifelong loudmouth offers, "even though I'm lonely, and this thing with my son is a betrayal. If you're a warrior, this is what happens. And yes, I'm a warrior. I don't mediate."

TROSTEN.

Whiz Kid

Lately I have been into pissing. I like watching piss porn, especially when the performers urinate on themselves and then drink their own pee. I also love whizzing in my own face and drinking some of my bladder juice (four to six ounces). I have two questions for you. First, what, if any, are the ill effects of drinking small amounts of your urine? Secondly, while I love the taste of my own salty piss, I wonder if there is anything I can eat or drink to make my whiz taste even better? I am disease-free. —M. S.
St. Charles, Missouri

To my knowledge, there's nothing hazardous about drinking small amounts of your own pee, as long as you're healthy to begin with. I also know that drinking substantial amounts of water is good, because the urine is filtered through your kidneys better. But I really couldn't tell you much about changing the taste. It is known that some foods, such as asparagus and coffee, make urine smell different. You could conduct your own little "Pee Challenge," keeping a log that chronicles what you've eaten and the resulting flavors. Let us know if you discover any prizeworthy recipes. Good luck.

Job Burnout

I have been working the third shift at an adult store in Chicago for a year now, and my sex drive keeps seesawing up and down. Could my job be responsible?
—Billy
via Internet

Sex drives tend to seesaw, regardless of your occupation; there are times when I suddenly feel insanely horny after a month of being totally indifferent. There are many factors that affect your desire to screw, such as stress, diet, and what's going on in your personal life. As far as your job goes, different people experience different reactions while working in that environment. While one person might become desensitized, the same situation can open the libidinal floodgates for another. That said, what's affecting you is most likely just hormones and stress.

Pooper Polish

What tips do you have for cleaning before anal sex? Does douching work?
—D. C.
via Internet

Do a digital check on yourself beforehand. If a finger poke reveals anything in your lower colon, douching is a good way to go, but I don't advise a deep cleansing, which could stir up your upper colon, causing anything that's way inside to work itself out at an awkward moment. Go to any pharmacy and buy a standard douche or enema; one of those big, pink ones with the white tube will do the trick. Use it with warm water, and do the cleaning while standing, which prevents the liquid from going too far up inside of you. After doing that, you'll be ready for a healthy round of butt love.

Learning to Rim

I have recently been exploring my lover's asshole while going down on her. At times my rimjobs drive her fucking crazy, while at other times it seems as if it doesn't phase her. Does licking ass generally feel good to women, or does it depend on the recipient? Is there some special technique? —B. W.
via Internet

An appreciation for rimming has to do with the state of mind. If your woman's feeling like an exceptionally dirty girl that night, it can drive her wild. There's no secret technique that I know of. If you're good at eating pussy, chances are you're skilled at chowing ass, too. During oral, you can always dip down to Mudville to say hello and gauge the response. If she's open to it, dive on in for a bit. If she's not, feel free to go back to eating her pussy. My personal preference would be to stick to the topside longer anyway.

TOXIC TROOPS

What Our Soldiers Can Expect in Gulf War II

Ever since she served on the front lines of the Persian Gulf War, Carol Picou has suffered from a variety of illnesses. The retired Army nurse attributes her ailments to depleted uranium, a radioactive metal the U.S. military used extensively during Operation Desert Storm. Is a new batch of recruits about to share Picou's fate?

INTERVIEW BY DAN KAPELOVITZ
PHOTOGRAPHY BY CAROL PICOU

Iraqi soldiers charred to death during the Gulf War.

Fewer than 200 American soldiers were killed in battle during the 1991 Persian Gulf War, but more than 9,600 of the relatively young Operation Desert Storm veterans have died since serving in Iraq, a statistical anomaly. Many of their lives were cut short by a host of medical problems, collectively known as Gulf War Syndrome.

At least a third of the veterans who are still alive have filed claims for war-related illnesses. After years of foot-dragging and stonewalling, the Veterans Administration has finally granted more than 150,000 of these claims.

The Pentagon blamed the illnesses on a variety of factors, including stress, insects, pesticides, vaccines and oil-well-fire smoke. What the Department of Defense and the government-serving mainstream media have failed to report is that the most likely cause of our soldiers' medical problems is the allied forces' use of a radioactive material called depleted uranium. Depleted uranium is an extremely dense metal the military uses because it can easily penetrate steel-armored tanks and can be used to strengthen the armor of our own tanks.

It's also extremely dangerous to the troops who use it. A 1990 government study by the U.S. Army Armaments, Munitions and Chemical Command contained a report by military contractor Science Applications International Corporation stating that the "short-term effects of high doses [of depleted uranium] can result in death, while long-term effects of low doses have been implicated in cancer." Even though the U.S. government knew of the potential hazards of depleted uranium at least six months before the war began, the military dropped tons of depleted-uranium-tipped weapons on Iraq. Our soldiers, who were often required to enter radioactive battlefields unprotected, were never warned of the dangers of depleted uranium. In effect, George Bush Sr. used weapons of mass destruction on his own people.

Because the U.S. military continues to use these "dirty bombs" in combat, American troops fighting in the second Gulf War will be exposed to the same harmful radiation that our soldiers experienced during Operation Desert Storm.

Carol Picou, Sergeant First Class (retired), who served for 15 years as an Army nurse and medical health counselor, is just one of the tens of thousands of American soldiers who currently suffer from Gulf War Syndrome. Picou, who founded the MISSION (Military Issues Surfacing In Our Nation) Project and has testified before Congress, sacrificed her long military career so she could speak the truth about Gulf War Syndrome and depleted uranium.

HUSTLER: Tell us about your experiences during the Persian Gulf War.

CAROL PICOU: I was a licensed practical nurse, but I also drove a five-ton truck, which contained the first operating room and was the third vehicle in the convoy going into combat. I drove all the way through the war. I noticed that all the bodies that were on the highways and the tanks and all the armament that was damaged were burnt. They were actually literally black, and I thought the Iraqi people were black-skinned. It amazed me that they were burned that bad—that we would have used some type of armament that would actually melt these people into their vehicles. I was always in the medical field, and we've had tank accidents in Europe. Soldiers would come in with shrapnel in them, but to see people literally burnt and melted into the vehicles...it's not normal. I asked questions about it, and, of course, I got no answers; so I took photos, and I brought sand samples back.

Carol Picou, May 6, 1997, at a press conference.

HUSTLER: When did you first become ill?

PICOU: I was getting these black flecks on my skin and having health problems on the front lines, and no one would address them. I was losing control of my muscles. One hour after I took the pyridostigmine pills—a little white pill that our government issued to us as a precursor against any possible chemical-warfare attack—I started drooling, and my muscles started twitching. When I returned to the United States in July [1991], my health started deteriorating. I started losing control of my bowels and my bladder. I started wetting myself and soiling myself, and by October I noticed I was gaining weight. I started researching why I was having these symptoms. I started evaluating everything that I was exposed to during the war, which was the anthrax shots, the botulinum vaccines, the pyridostigmine bromide and the new weapon system that we called depleted uranium. We used it in our armored tanks and in our A-10 aircraft.

HUSTLER: What did you find?

PICOU: In August of 1992, I went public to find out what's wrong with American soldiers, because too many of us were getting sick. In 1993, I went to Congress and testified. I was the first active-duty soldier to go, but I didn't go in uniform, because I represented myself and not the Army. I testified about what the Desert Storm soldiers were experiencing, and I brought photos of babies that were born with major birth defects. They were missing their arms, their legs, their eyes, their ears. They had golden-heart syndrome, where their heart is actually on the wrong side of the cavity. I started a support group and realized that there were many of us from our unit that were sick and having problems. In San Antonio, we had two major brain tumors in soldiers that died a year after returning. It was just getting to be where so many soldiers were getting sick and dying, and nobody wanted to do anything to help us.

HUSTLER: Weren't you told that you were sick because you lived in San Antonio?

PICOU: Yeah, but we didn't have any depleted-uranium mines where we lived, and we didn't have any tanks or aircraft that this weapon would have been involved in where I lived. The ironic part was I only lived in San Antonio three months prior to my departure for the war.

HUSTLER: Who gave you the San Antonio explanation?

PICOU: It was a doctor who was ordered to test my urine for depleted-uranium poison. The only soldiers that were being tested for depleted uranium—this was in January of 1993—were the soldiers that were hit by friendly fire.

Government Lies About Depleted Uranium

Metal of Dishonor: How the Pentagon Radiates Soldiers & Civilians With DU Weapons (International Action Center), features chapters by various experts on, among other subjects, how the military and the media conspire to cover up the truth about depleted uranium.

The book's editors, John Catalinotto and Sara Flounders of the Depleted Uranium Education Project, have also compiled the following damning evidence showing that, even though the U.S. government's own studies have revealed the health hazards of depleted uranium, officials continue to lie to the American public.

What the Government Documents Admit:

From the Army Environmental Policy Institute (AEPI), Health and Environmental Consequences of Depleted Uranium Use in the U.S. Army: Technical Report, June 1995:

"If DU enters the body, it has the potential to generate significant medical consequences. The risks associated with DU in the body are both chemical and radiological."

"Personnel inside or near vehicles struck by DU penetrators could receive significant internal exposures."

From the Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) report, included as Appendix D of AMMCOM's "Kinetic Energy Penetrator Long Term Strategy Study," Danesi, July 1990. This report was completed six months before Desert Storm:

"Short-term effects of high doses can result in death, while long-term effects of low doses have been implicated in cancer."

"Aerosol DU exposures to soldiers on the battlefield could be significant with potential radiological and toxicological effects."

From Operation Desert Storm: Army Not Adequately Prepared to Deal With Depleted Uranium Contamination, United States General Accounting Office (GAO/NSIAD-93-90), January 1993, pp. 17-18:

"Inhaled insoluble oxides stay in the lungs longer and pose a potential cancer risk due to radiation. Ingested DU dust can also pose both a radioactive and a toxicity risk."

What the Government Is Telling Us:

From the Presidential Advisory Committee of Gulf War Veterans' Illnesses: Final Report, December 1996: "The Committee concludes that it is unlikely that health-effects reports by Gulf War veterans today are the result of exposure to depleted uranium during the Gulf War."

Human roadkill on the "highway of death."

We had over 32 soldiers that were hit with our own aircraft. They found that depleted uranium was spilling into their urine. Depleted uranium had shown up in my urine, and they said it wasn't anything to worry about; it was just background levels, it's just natural. I knew the doctor didn't have any idea what he was talking about, because I had just spent the year and a half researching depleted uranium.

HUSTLER: Was he a military doctor?

PICOU: Yeah. Of course, there were major problems, because I had already gone to Congress and testified twice, and it was my congressman who ordered that I be tested for depleted uranium; so our government wasn't very happy with that.

HUSTLER: How did you lose your military career?

PICOU: I continued to testify before Congress and the Senate, and I was ordered that, if I continued to speak out, I would possibly lose my military career. This was a threat from my chain of command. The Army had put me on bed rest from July of 1992 until I was no longer functioning. I would come to work, and I would soil myself and urinate on myself. My muscles were deteriorating. I was sick, running 104-degree fevers. My skin would be breaking open and bleeding. They said I was no longer fit for active duty. They're supposed to actually help you get well, but in 1995, I was medically discharged against my wishes. I was up in Washington testifying, and I got discharged without my signature. I refused to sign it because I felt that they should have taken care of me. When we all join the military—I joined in 1978—one of our benefits that's promised to us is that we would receive expeditious medical care. Unfortunately, none of us were getting it. Soldiers were being discharged and put out, and they referred us to the VA, when the VA had no idea what was happening. It was like nobody wanted any responsibility to take care of me medically. I had private health insurance through my husband's company. When I did all my tests, they found that I had neurological damage, a suppressed immune system, antibody development and chemical toxicity. I was chemically poisoned. I was losing speech and thoughts and not really functioning. My insurance then dropped me. They kept getting a Code 99, which meant that this was combat-related. They didn't have to pay because they had a war clause, and the Army was discharging me *non*combat-related so they wouldn't have to pay either; so I was caught in catch-22.

HUSTLER: How's your health now?

PICOU: As a matter of fact, I got a phone call today; I have to go for another MRI tomorrow. I had one done of my brain last month, and I've got severe burning sensations in my spine. They're looking right now to see if the neurological changes are still developing. I've been wearing diapers since 1991 because I have no feeling from my waist down. I've been catheterizing myself to urinate since 1992. The neurological damage is still there, but I went through psychotherapy to learn how to speak again and learn how to drive and just to maintain. I'm very forgetful. My speech breaks up from time to time, and my thoughts wander. I've just learned to live with it.

HUSTLER: Tell us about the report you received.

PICOU: This report came to me anonymously in 1994. I received it the same week that I got confirmation that I was exposed to depleted uranium. It was sent in a brown envelope stamped WASHINGTON, D.C. It was a study of the soldiers' exposures to everything in the Persian Gulf War, which included anthrax, botulinum, pyridostigmine, cart paint—the paint that we used to paint the vehicles the sand color—and depleted uranium. For the first time, there was mention of this weapons system; so my husband had announced on a network call [with other Gulf War Syndrome activists] that he was going to make copies and leave it for me. I wasn't on the phone call at the time he was talking; I left to go out of town to get a muscle biopsy done. When I came back, he left the report in the car, but I didn't know that; I just thought it was his paperwork.

"I was ordered that, if I continued to speak out, I would lose my military career."

Dr. Helen Caldicott Sets the Record Straight on Radioactive Weaponry

The founder of Physicians for Social Responsibility and a nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize, Dr. Helen Caldicott has devoted the past 30 years to educating the public about the medical hazards of the nuclear age. She spoke to HUSTLER about the dangers of depleted uranium.

HUSTLER: What can you tell us about the harmful effects of depleted uranium?

CALDICOTT: The war in Iraq in '91 was really a nuclear war. They used 300 to 800 tons of uranium shells. Uranium 238 is 1.7 times more dense than lead, and it slices through the armor of a tank like a hot knife through butter. However, when it hits the tank, it's pyrophoric—it bursts into flames, producing tiny particles less than five microns in diameter, and they can be inhaled and lodged in the lung, and transferred from the lung to other organs, like the kidney. The Gulf War veterans who were in that war are excreting uranium in their urine and semen. Because it has a half-life of more than four billion years, it's around forever; so America left a radioactive battlefield for the rest of time, which violates all the Geneva Conventions on war. The incidences of childhood cancer and leukemia in the areas in which it was used, like Basra, has gone up about six times or more, and the physicians can't treat their patients because of the sanctions. If children die untreated, [it] is inhumane to say the least. The instances of congenital anomalies have doubled or tripled. Women are too terrified now to give birth because there's a huge increase of babies born with a single eye, babies born with no brains, babies born with spina bifida and many other really extreme malformations, many of which are lethal. Probably the cause of that is the uranium in the semen with the men. There is chromosomal damage in their sperm as well as genetic mutation.

HUSTLER: Will this contamination that the American men brought back with them be passed into the American ecosystem and on to their children and their children's children?

CALDICOTT: Not all of the Americans have been tested, but many of those who have are excreting uranium in their semen and urine. A break in a chromosome produced from radiation emanating from the uranium can cause very severe congenital anomalies. If, however, you only have a mutation in a gene, that gene can produce a congenital anomaly, or it can be passed on from generation to generation if it's a recessive mutation, and it may not express itself for 20 generations, until two recessive genes get together to express that particular disease.

HUSTLER: The American government has denied any link between these diseases and the exposure to depleted uranium. How do they justify that position?

CALDICOTT: They're lying. In my book, I've referenced some articles from the American military that were written before they went into the Gulf in '91, talking about depleted uranium and the effect on the soldiers. They said [that] under no circumstances should soldiers be exposed to this material, which can cause various forms of cancer, congenital anomalies and other diseases.

HUSTLER: It's been reported that this situation has not been corrected or changed, that the troops who will be involved in the new Gulf War are still uninformed, and there is no protective clothing being issued that would mitigate these problems.

CALDICOTT: You can't really protect troops from particles that are very, very tiny; they'd have to have really extraordinary respirators, and in the heat of the desert, they probably won't wear them, and knowing human fallibility, soldiers wouldn't keep them on all of the time. They were exposed to a lot of uranium when America accidentally bombed an ammunition depot containing large quantities of depleted-uranium shells. I'm concerned very much about the veterans and the fact that there's a huge coverup. I'm deeply concerned about the people of Iraq, who have to live in contaminated, radioactive areas for the rest of time. It's a war crime to do that. Furthermore, they are going to be doing it again this time, and there's a chance they may use a nuclear bunker-buster in Iraq. The U.S. has the largest number of biological weapons in the world; in fact, they're working on them now as we speak at Los Alamos [National Laboratory in New Mexico] and elsewhere, and they have the largest number of chemical weapons in the world. They're using this depleted uranium with impunity in Kosovo, in Afghanistan, in Bosnia and in the Gulf. And they're about to use it again. This administration is violating treaty after treaty. There's been a massive coverup on this issue in the American press. I wrote two op-ed pieces on the medical consequences of depleted uranium for the New York Times. They said they wanted it, and then they said, "We are unable to publish this." There's been a very large amount of media in Europe on this issue, because some of the European soldiers who went as peacekeepers to Kosovo have developed leukemia and cancer. There have been hearings in the European parliament and much media, but there's been virtually nothing in America, which is very concerning for a so-called free society.

To learn more about the U.S. government's radioactive weapons, check out Caldicott's book, The New Nuclear Danger: George W. Bush's Military-Industrial Complex, or go to www.NuclearPolicy.org.

The next day, I had to go get my sutures removed and left everything in the car because it was too heavy to carry. That night, at 1:45 in the morning, I was awoken; the whole backseat of my car was engulfed in flames. I called my husband, and he asked me if I got the report out of the backseat, and I told him I didn't. I thought he had the copy.

HUSTLER: Did he have a copy of it?

PICOU: No. All of it was engulfed in flames. The next day, another one of those reports arrived anonymously at my house; so we did get a copy of it.

HUSTLER: Do you think it was arson?

PICOU: Oh, yeah. As a matter of fact, they said it was definitely arson. The fire department asked me if I had any enemies, and if I knew who would do this. I told them the only people I know that would probably do this to me would be the Pentagon, the Department of Defense, because I was already speaking out in Congress. I had already received threatening phone calls. A week later, the fire department told me that they had found something suspicious: None of the engine was burnt; it was all started in the backseat, and that's where that (continued on page 159)

Question: What's the difference between a clitoris and a remote control? Answer: A guy will keep looking for the remote.

A week after their wedding, redneck newlyweds Jed and Daisy paid a visit to their doctor.

"I can't figure it out, Doc, and I'm really worried," said Jed. "My privates are turning purple."

"That's pretty unusual," said the medico. "Let me examine you."

The doctor took a look. Sure enough, Jed's privates were purple. The healer turned to Daisy and asked, "Are you using the diaphragm that I prescribed?"

"Yeah, I am," she replied.

"And what kind of jelly are you using with it?" he asked.

"Grape," she responded.

The HUSTLER Dictionary defines bed sheet as: the difference between a little racist and a Lott racist.

A husband and wife were driving down the road while arguing about the husband's rampant infidelity. The wife suddenly reached over, sliced the man's penis off and angrily tossed it out the car window.

Driving behind the couple was a man and his nine-year-old daughter. The little girl was chatting away at her father when, all of a sudden, the penis smacked the windshield, stuck for a moment, then flew off.

"Daddy, what the heck was that?" the daughter asked in surprise.

Not wanting to expose his little girl to anything sexual at such a young age, the father replied, "It was only a bug, honey."

The daughter sat with a confused look on her face and, after a few minutes, said, "Sure had a big dick, didn't it?"

A princess was walking past a pond in the royal gardens when she looked down to see a really ugly frog. Picking it up, she commented on the creature's hideous appearance.

"My, you are a really ugly frog!" she exclaimed.

"I know, I know, I got a really bad spell on me," the frog replied.

"Well, I've seen frogs with spells, but none as ugly as you," the princess responded.

"Leave me alone, lady," said the frog. "I told you, it's a bad spell."

"Well, even so, if I kiss you, will you turn into a prince?" she asked.

"I don't know, lady," the frog replied. "A spell this bad will probably take a blowjob."

Question: What did the sign on the door of the whorehouse say?
Answer: BEAT IT; WE'RE CLOSED.

A man walked into a cowboy bar and ordered a beer just as President Bush came on the TV. After a few sips he looked up at the screen and mumbled, "Now there's the biggest horse's ass I've ever seen."

Immediately, a customer at the end of the bar got up, walked over, decked him and left.

A few minutes later, the man was finishing his beer when Laura Bush appeared on the TV. "She's a horse's ass, too," he said.

A customer from the other end of the bar got up, walked over and knocked him off his stool.

"Dammit!" the man said, climbing back up to the bar. "This must be Bush country."

"Nope," the bartender replied. "Horse country."

During Sheri's first visit to the gynecologist, the gorgeous brunette was clearly scared to death. Once her feet were in the stirrups, the gyno looked at her and sympathetically asked if she was nervous.

"Yes," Sheri replied timidly.

"Would you like me to numb you down there?" the doctor asked.

"Sure," sighed Sheri, relaxing.

The gynecologist stuck his face in her twat and went, "Num, num, num, num...."

Frank woke up and told his wife about the dream he just had. "I was at an auction for pussies," the husband related. "The really tight ones sold for $1,000, and the loose ones went for $10."

"What about mine?" the wife asked.

Frank looked at her for a second and said flatly, "That's where they held the auction."

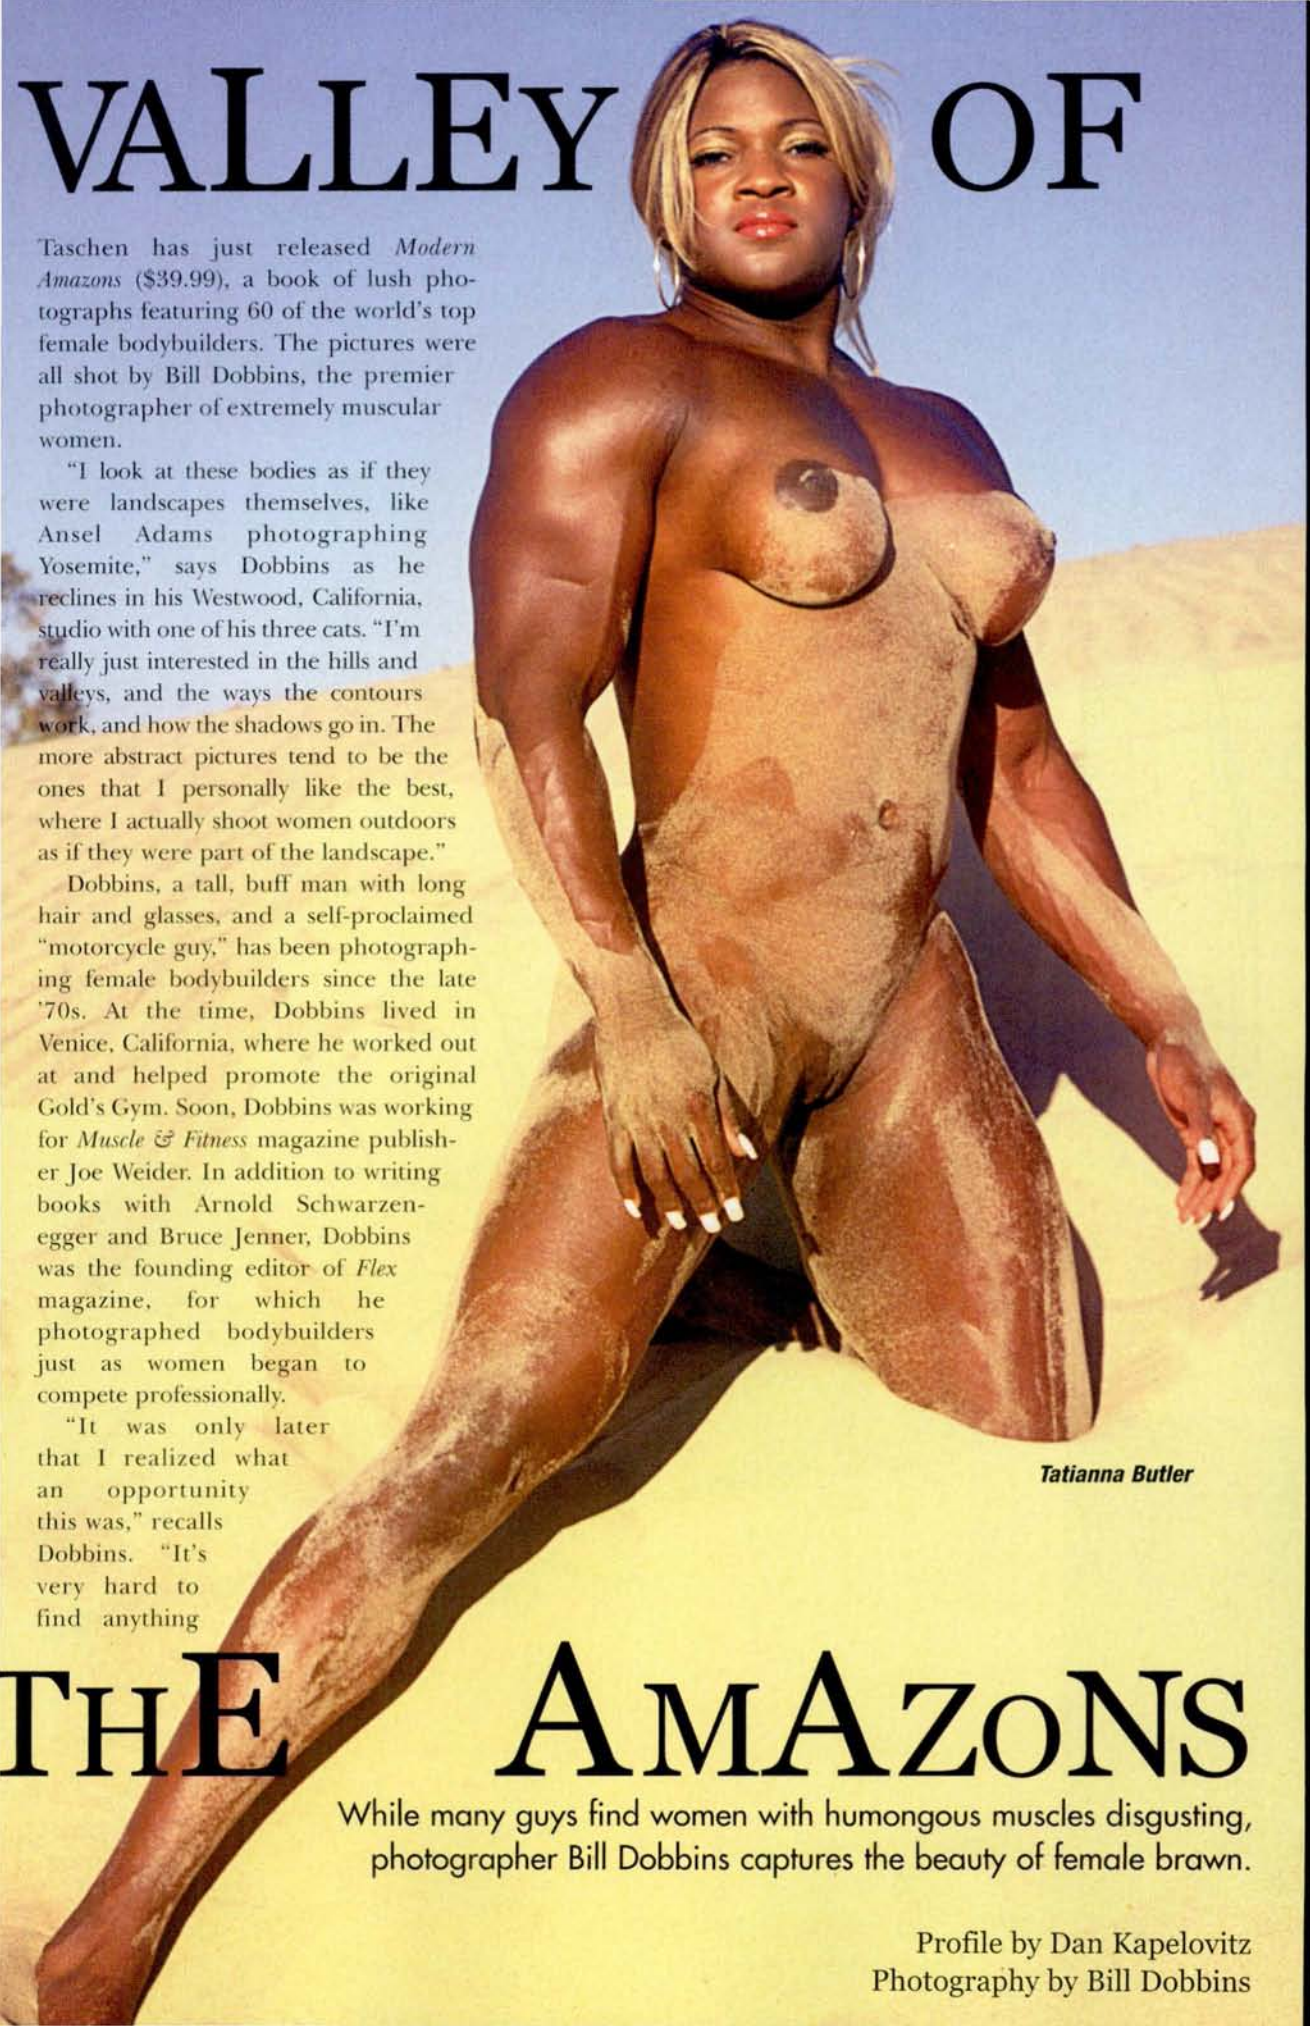
VALLEY OF THE AMAZONS



Tatianna Butler

Taschen has just released Modern Amazons ($39.99), a book of lush photographs featuring 60 of the world's top female bodybuilders. The pictures were all shot by Bill Dobbins, the premier photographer of extremely muscular women.

"I look at these bodies as if they were landscapes themselves, like Ansel Adams photographing Yosemite," says Dobbins as he reclines in his Westwood, California, studio with one of his three cats. "I'm really just interested in the hills and valleys, and the ways the contours work, and how the shadows go in. The more abstract pictures tend to be the ones that I personally like the best, where I actually shoot women outdoors as if they were part of the landscape."

Dobbins, a tall, buff man with long hair and glasses, and a self-proclaimed "motorcycle guy," has been photographing female bodybuilders since the late '70s. At the time, Dobbins lived in Venice, California, where he worked out at and helped promote the original Gold's Gym. Soon, Dobbins was working for Muscle & Fitness magazine publisher Joe Weider. In addition to writing books with Arnold Schwarzenegger and Bruce Jenner, Dobbins was the founding editor of Flex magazine, for which he photographed bodybuilders just as women began to compete professionally.

"It was only later that I realized what an opportunity this was," recalls Dobbins. "It's very hard to find anything that's new—so here was this new cultural phenomenon with not only sex and beauty and photographic possibilities involved with it, but it also had all sorts of social and cultural implications, and no one else was really taking it seriously."

While many guys find women with humongous muscles disgusting, photographer Bill Dobbins captures the beauty of female brawn.

As female bodybuilders grew bigger physically, muscle magazines became too timid to publish Dobbins's photos. "I quickly got way ahead of what the physique magazines were publishing. They tend to have a fairly reactionary view to female muscle."

As an outlet for his work, Dobbins created BillDobbins.com. The Web site made money its very first day and grossed six figures within a year. The photographer then launched BillDobbins.net to showcase his more explicit photos of hyper-muscular females. "I still avoid pictures of the women that are, say, as explicit as the women in HUSTLER or Muscle Elegance, not because I have anything against that personally. It's just that, if you are trying to feature the sculptural qualities of the body, showing a lot of explicit pictures of pussy tends to distract the men."

Although Dobbins doesn't have a fetish for super-muscular women, he has dated his share of female bodybuilders. "If you're around really fit, athletic women all of the time, then you are going to prefer women who are in the hard-body direction."

Even so, Dobbins is the first to admit that not everyone is a fan of iron-pumping babes, a fact that the photographer attributes to misguided preconceptions more than inherent distaste for female brawn. "If you ask most people about women bodybuilders in the abstract, they'll have something negative to say, [but] everyone likes muscles on women as long as the women are beautiful enough. There have been a lot of cases of female bodybuilders who were not particularly beautiful who were criticized for not having attractive bodies; if those women had looked like Pamela Anderson, everyone would have talked about how beautiful their bodies were. People see what they believe, not the other way around."

HUSTLER invites our readers to look at Dobbins's photographs and decide for themselves.

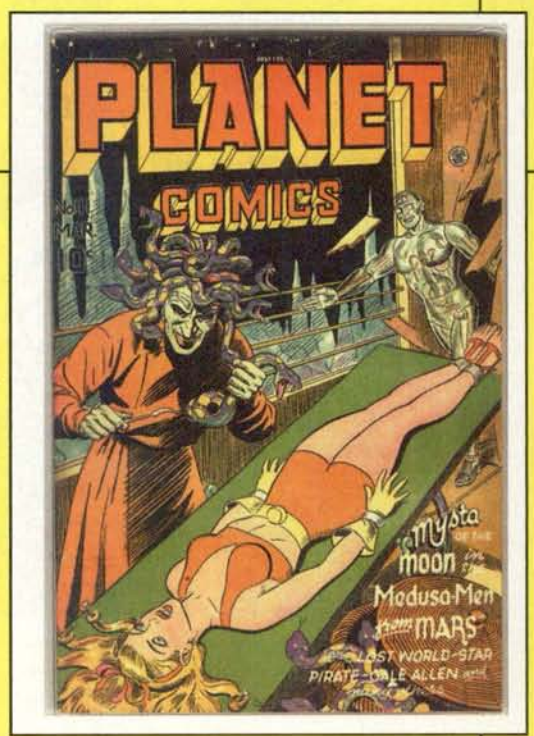
Kink in Ink

Bondage Comics of the '40s and '50s

Screw Little Dot; comic books in the mid-20th century often featured S&M themes and images that would put the Marquis de Sade to shame.



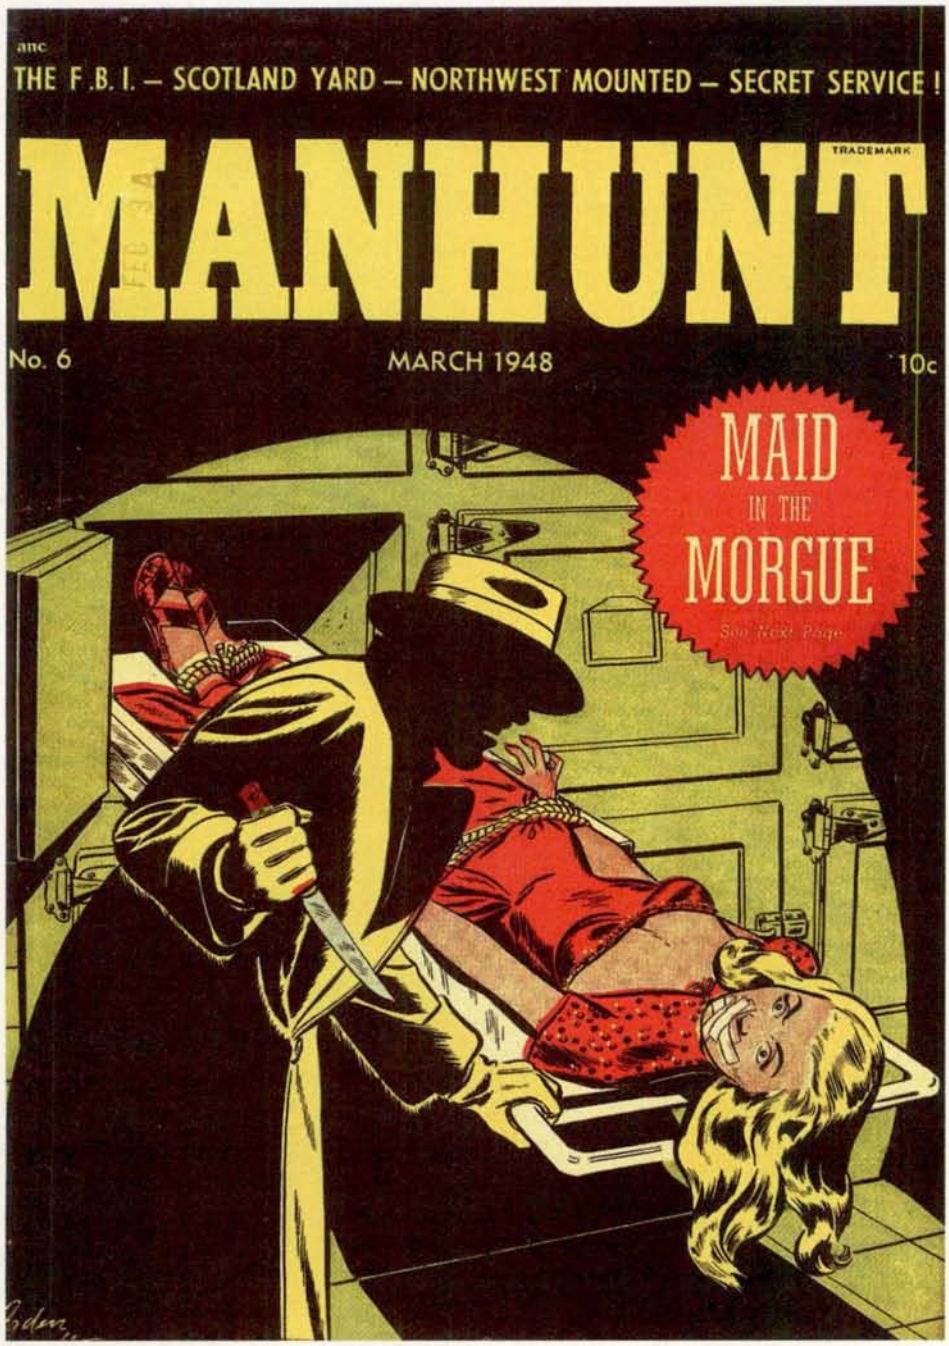
Overview by Linc Yaco

Today, we're constantly barraged with explicit images of sexuality. In a more innocent era, printed nudity was to be found only in the pages of National Geographic, and a subtle and subliminal form of bondage could only be seen in the most obscure of venues. For more than a decade and a half—from the 1940s to the mid-'50s—sexy gals in exotic dress and inventive captivity decorated the pages of comic books.

In the jungle comics, scores of blond women wearing tiger-skin bathing suits suffered from rope burns. Sheena, Nyoka, Tiger Girl, Tygra, Lorna, Camilla and the more prosaically named Judy of the Jungle and Jungle Lil were constantly struggling to free themselves from the bondage of vines, bamboo cages and roughly hewn sacrificial altars. In that straitlaced age, it never seemed to occur to their cannibal captors to rape these fair-haired, B-cupped virgins. Eat them, maybe; fuck 'em, never.

In the science-fiction comics—the best of the lascivious breed being Fiction House's Planet Comics—metal-bra-wearing gals were chained, manacled and held in place by bipolar scientists and alien creatures using an inventive variety of mechanical gear. Although the aliens were not anatomically equipped for conventional couplings, many of the creatures possessed tentacles perfectly designed for capturing full-breasted chicks in see-through spacesuits.

The Planet Comics space queens suffered a variety of bizarre internments. Gale Allen, wearing a sun suit split down to her navel, dangled suggestively in the tentacle-like grip of evil trees. Mysta of the Moon, wearing a half-blouse that revealed one metallic bra cup, thrashed against a lady criminal in equally fetishistic gear—chain-mail pants and a strapless bra held in place by nothing more than printer's ink. Futura was probed in the laboratory of Mentor, whose veined, bulbous head resembled a lone testicle. Lyssa of The Lost World was captured by the skull-faced Voltamen, whose Nazi helmets made them look like upright penises. In one memorable comic, Lyssa is imprisoned in a tank full of reptilian monsters of similarly Freudian suggestiveness.



Fox Comics, meanwhile, had Phantom Lady, a sexy heroine who romped around in a blue bathing suit, no matter what the weather. Her antagonists were often women who wore as little as she, but the resulting catfights never loosened their barely supported togs.

With male artists being drafted for World War II, editors were desperate to find replacements, and more of the sexy comics were drawn by women, whose output was just as erotically intriguing as that of their male counterparts.

At Fiction House, which produced the best-drawn of the comics, the gals really made their mark. Lily Renee, one of Fiction House's premier artists, rendered covers presenting women sexy enough to warm any foxhole. Fran Hopper excelled as the artist of the zebra-skin-clad jungle queen, Camilla, as did Marcia Snyder.

Hopper also drew a number of other sexy features for Planet Comics, such as the aforementioned Gale Allen and the All Girl Squadron and Mysta of the Moon. Her space chicks, in see-through nighties that would put Frederick's of Hollywood to shame, sprawled sensuously across entire pages, often wreathed in chains. All the Planet women were constantly in danger of being shanghaied by space pirates, groped by cosmic monsters and imprisoned by futuristic perverts. It's almost a shame that, when the war ended, the lady artists returned to being housewives and secretaries.

When jungle comics got old, crime comics came along, and the jungle gals put on city togs to fight gangsters instead of cannibals. Whether they were wearing prison garb, frilly nightgowns or cop uniforms, the result was often the same—tied up again.

The crime comics were more mean-spirited than their jungle and space forebears. Gangsters bound women to chairs and threatened to brand them with white-hot pokers, or stick ice picks into their eyes. Apparently, the increasing sadism of the crime comics didn't go down well with the ex-servicemen who read them. Parents now, and feeling a need to protect their children, their strident complaints to local and federal officials eventually shut down scores of publishers, including Fiction House, Fox and St. John, almost overnight.

Comics became safe, bland and sexually nonthreatening for the following decade, until the next generation grew hungry for material that broke through the constraints of the McCarthy generation.

The comics that were deemed such a threat to the virtue of children a half-century ago now seem quaint. Some of us can only wish for the charm of a time when a 12-year-old picked up comics from the corner drugstore, eager to discover what illicit thrills he might find within the four-color pages.

Sweet 101

Directed by Robby D.

Starring April, Aurora Snow, Kaylynn, Ann Marie, Faith Adams, Eric Masterson, Tice Bune, Marty Romano, Jay Ashley and Evan Stone.

Videocassette and DVD: Digital Playground.

Sweet 101 is an impressively sharp-looking bit of filth. Guiding a cast of gorgeous, implant-free starlets, director Robby D. sets the action during the night shift in a quirky hotel—hence the title's regrettable wordplay. Thanks to highly professional sets and lighting, each strumpet looks about as good as she ever will on camera. Ann Marie portrays a bored hooker who gives businessman/loser Tice Bune the ride of his life. Elsewhere, stoners Aurora Snow and Evan Stone torment room service before going off on a smoky, hole-stretching romp that leaves Aurora blissed out in a puddle of jizz. Statuesque siren Faith Adams caps the vid with her seduction of bellboy Eric Masterson. With five standout scenes and a slick nod to Stanley Kubrik's The Shining, Sweet 101 will have pervs checking in for extended stays.

HUSTLER IN THE SPOTLIGHT AT THE 2003 ADULT ENTERTAINMENT EXPO

From January 8 through January 12 of 2003, the Sands Expo Center at the sumptuous Venetian Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas hosted a throbbing celebration of the world's erotic-entertainment industry. With hundreds of merchants promoting everything from pornographic holograms to a self-anointed "#1 Christian porn Web site," it was easy for an exhibitor to be lost in the mob. However, HUSTLER once again made a dazzling show with their booth on the floor of the Expo.

"This is our best convention so far—the response has been amazing," beamed Craig Jelin, HUSTLER Video's Director of Sales, as the throng of fans lined up for autographs from Larry Flynt and newly contracted HUSTLER Honey Jenna Jameson.

Newsman Steve Croft and a crew from 60 Minutes were also on hand to cover the ever-booming industry, but when HUSTLER Features Editor Dan Kapelovitz asked Croft if he liked porn, the veteran TV journalist begged off.

On Saturday, January 11, more than 3,500 guests gathered in a cavernous banquet hall at the Venetian to fete the year's finest filth at the 20th annual AVN Awards show. After rumors of an Eminem sighting rippled through the crowd, Motley Crüe frontman Vince Neil kicked off the evening with a blistering rendition of "Girls, Girls, Girls" featuring gyrating exotic dancers and backup vocals by a bevy of blue-screen starlets that included Sunset Thomas. Twin porn stars Taylor and Tyler Star helped hosts Chloe and comedian Doug Stanhope hand out the statuettes. HUSTLER walked away with six AVN Awards, including a Best Vignette Series honor for the legendary BARELY LEGAL line, a Best Ethnic-Themed Video recognition for Liquid City, Best Foreign Vignette Tape kudos for HUSTLER XXX #11 and a Best Music nod for America XXX: A Celebration of Sex and Rock & Roll.

Larry Flynt received a standing ovation when he presented the Reuben Sturman Special Achievement Award to Mel Kamins of General Video Cleveland. Mr. Flynt recalled how the late Sturman tirelessly supported smaller businesses in their legal battles during the early days of the industry. Commending Mel Kamins on continuing that tradition, Flynt called for the industry to remain vigilant in its campaign against censorship.

The awards closed with a raucous musical performance by Crazy Town, highlighted by a swarm of gorgeous female talent that unexpectedly joined the rockers onstage. After the show, the audience headed off into the Vegas night to celebrate another great year for the adult industry.

Videocassette: Celestial Productions.

Several of the talented mouth musicians in The Oral Adventures of Craven Moorehead #14 break free from a typical blowjob vid's slurp-and-gulp formula to have their pussies and asses pounded. Some even choose to team up on man root for sizzling threesomes or take on two cocks at once for a side dish of D.P. to complement their slobbery deep-throating. Best of all, the straight blowjob scenes are so scorching that they hold their own in comparison. Each eager young strumpet huffs on tube steak like a crack fiend at the glass stem. With so many stellar performances demanding one-handed applause, no mortal man has the stamina to watch The Oral Adventures of Craven Moorehead #14 in just one sitting.

Falling From Grace

Directed by Brad Armstrong.
Starring Sydnee Steele, Stephanie Swift, Nicole Sheridan, Jessica Drake, Felecia, Kitten, Stormy, Brad Armstrong, Randy Spears, Dillon, Voodoo, Mike Horner and Joey Ray.
Videocassette: Wicked Pictures.

At the start of Falling From Grace, Brad Armstrong discovers that girlfriend Sydnee Steele has been fucking obtuse goon Dillon. The unsurprising revelation nonetheless has a stunning effect on Brad: In a scene set five years later, Armstrong is revealed in priestly garb, preaching sermons on love to a congregation populated by the likes of Stephanie Swift and Felecia. When faced with temptations of the flesh, Father Brad has heart-to-heart discussions of faith with elder priest Mike Horner. Although an unlikely setup for non-NAMBLA video smut, there's plenty of memorable sex deftly slipped in, such as Father Brad's graphic fantasy about Stephanie Swift's confession concerning a hot lesbo tryst with Felecia. Sydnee Steele swells bones as the vixen who returns as Father Brad's last temptation. Surprisingly, Falling From Grace works both as sleaze and as an offbeat study of one mook's struggle with faith.

HUSTLER XXX #16

Directed by Pierre Woodman.
Starring Amy, Kira, Rachida, Michelle, Daffny, Bob Terminator, Chris Mountain, Alain DeLoin, Reda, Pascal St. James and Titof.
Videocassette: HUSTLER Video.

Glamorous European babes with perfect bodies embroiled in raunchy threeways are business as usual for porn auteur Pierre Woodman. HUSTLER XXX #16 continues this streak. Amy, a Xena lookalike, rivals the vociferous screams of the warrior princess throughout the length of her sizzling ménage à trois, and the two studs plundering her orifices don't relent for a moment. The other vixens don't give their vocal cords a rest either, some not even when stuffing cock down their throat. Middle Eastern stunner Rachida probably can't bring peace to the West Bank, but the exotic beauty does bridge the culture gap with two infidels in a scorching D.P. Doggedly hard, nasty and loud, not one of these hotties escapes from an ass-reaming they'll never forget. HUSTLER XXX #16 sets the standard by which hard-core filth should be measured.

—J.P.

Pussyman's Squirt Fever

Directed by David Christopher.
Starring Candy Cotton, Friday, Amber Lynn, Hannah Harper, Sophie Evans, Tony Tedeschi, Tony Ribas, Pat Myne, Byron Long, Billy Banks, Dominiko and Pussyman.
Videocassette: Feline Films.

Pussyman himself (a/k/a portly director David Christopher) lurks throughout Pussyman's Squirt Fever, threatening to reveal his pale fleshiness while he manhandles jizz queens such as Hannah Harper and Candy Cotton. When viewers are spared Pussyman's schlubby presence, they can enjoy a few memorable reamings. Bubble-titted bimbot Candy Cotton takes on three Nubian swordsmen in a vicious drilling that leaves her coughing splooge and moaning about her ravaged holes. Prehistoric sleaze legend Amber Lynn proves that, even if her looks have hardened over the millennia, she still has the cock-wrangling skills to drain Tony Tedeschi's nut sac dry. The touted attraction of this tape is squirting displays from various slits, and although Candy Cotton's floodgates are hard to swallow, the other gushing gashes of Pussyman's Squirt Fever seem genuine.

She's So Anal: Nikki finds a perfect fit.

D.P. Dilemma

Directed by Jim Powers.
Starring Madison, Samantha Sterlyng, Jasmine Lynn, Amythiest Stone, Taylor Wood, Rick Masters, Dick Tracy, Ben English, Trent Tesoro and John West.
Videocassette: J.M. Productions.

D.P. Dilemma spoon-feeds four hot tramps their first taste of double penetration and, judging by each nymphet's roof-shaking wails of pleasure, certainly not their last. Madison, a tasty blonde with pouty lips, has a nightmare about her first D.P., which turns into a dream come true when she and another minx are sodomized side by side. Amythiest Stone nearly breaks the deck chairs in her vigorous poolside hole-plugging. Budding strumpet Samantha Sterlyng seeks D.P. advice from her mom before dropping to her knees for a hard, loud double-stuffing, gurgling and gasping for breath while she's drilled at both ends. Icicles of splooge still drip from Samantha's chin when she calls Mom to brag about how well it went. With only three action-packed scenes, the only problem D.P. Dilemma presents to smut lovers is having to wait for the next installment.

She's So Anal

Directed by Patrick Collins.
Starring Nikki, Layla Jade, Pamela Killman, Pavla, Suzie, Michelle Raven, Sue, Boby, Steve Holmes, Dennis Marti, George Uhl, John Lovak and Herschel Savage.
Videocassette: Elegant Angel.

In She's So Anal, Herschel Savage hosts some sort of European Outward Bound program that puts participants through trust exercises and merciless rectal violations. Focusing mostly on moon-faced Nikki, a bespectacled Euro-whore with a penchant for having her shitpipe plunged, the video presents a series of standard, foreign-made vignettes. Looking like a cross between Michael Bolton and Alec Baldwin, Herschel takes turns with Euro-mooks sampling the various cum Dumpsters. Although butt sex is the titular focus of this video, there are plenty of penetrated pussies displayed. A concluding dyke-out with Michelle Raven and Layla Jade makes effective vaginal use of plastic prongs. Even though She's So Anal has no glaring problems, it's indistinguishable from the rest of the colonic fare currently spewing out the industry's butthole.

—C.T.

London Shaggers

Directed by Corey Jordan.
Starring Misha, Sasha, Shenna, Amber Sex, Chloe, Jay, Markie Mark and Justin.
Videocassette: Anarchy Films.

What red-blooded American doesn't dream of a ménage à trois with identical twin blondes? Sadly, the surprisingly dull London Shaggers deflates that noble summit of erotic goals. Cock-hungry twins Sasha and Misha kick things off with a halfhearted romp, and the flick falls apart from there. Rounding out the cast with hard-boobed British skags wrecks any momentum from the twins' initial shag. The Brits apparently need good plastic surgeons as desperately as they need dentists. Chloe, a buttery crumpet with jutting knockers, seems to offer up a bright spot until she disrobes to reveal her badly botched tit job. The finale again features the spitting-image Euro-whore sisters teaming up on a lucky stiff, this time with more gusto, but by then London Shaggers has already dropped the ball on what should have been a foolproof premise.

Hooray for Hollywood

Directed by Mike Quasar.
Starring Holly Hollywood, April, Alaura Eden, Sunrise Adams, Petra, Mark Wood, Joel Lawrence and Trent Tesoro.
Videocassette: Metro Inc./Cal Vista.

Looking like an episode of Dawson's Creek with lots of cornholing, Hooray for Hollywood tells the story of gorgeous ingenue Holly Hollywood and her quest to become a Tinseltown star. When Holly encounters the casting couch, the principled wench turns down Mark Wood's offer to suck his cock for a role. Holly's competitive roommate April, however, is painted as a backstabbing weasel just because she huffs down superagent Joel Lawrence's choad for a chance to be in the movies. The moral rigor of Holly's choice to give up mainstream acting because she won't boff producers is shaky, since she immediately dives headfirst into porn flicks, but who cares? The vid features Holly's first boy/girl scene, and she ecstatically takes it in the ass from Trent Tesoro. Hooray for Hollywood will make randy cineasts cheer for the gala opening of Holly's holes.

She's So Anal: Nikki sizes up her options.

London Shaggers: The shagger twins take the form of a threesome.

London Shaggers: Misha and Sasha's rejected Doublemint ad.

The World's First 300lb. Gangbang

TIPPING THE SCALES IN BAD TASTE

Gang-bangs are typically unappetizing affairs marked by lines of grotesque mooks taking turns jumping on some miserable wench for hours at a time. But if anyone could take the concept of the organized clusterfuck to a new low—or high, if you're going by tonnage—the distinction should go to veteran porn director/producer Rob Spallone and his Starworld Productions for shooting The World's First 300lb. Gangbang. Featuring several dozen morbidly obese men and women, the video chronicles participants squashing humanly proportioned jizz queen Kat Kleevage for the better part of a day.

Sharing the directing and culinary chores with Henri Pachard (a massive buffet is put out to keep the chubsters satiated, and most of the performers will be paid in food, not money), Spallone herds the adipose actors into one corner of the room for a quick pep talk. "I'm going to be making funny comments on the tape as we go along. Nothing really mean, just funny; so don't get offended," he sincerely intones over the sounds of potato chips crunching and gyro sandwiches being inhaled. "Okay then? Okay, you fat piles of shit—let's fuck!" With those inspiring and sensitive words, the cellulite orgy begins.

A number of corpulent porkers jump on Kleevage, who resembles a flattened pancake gasping for air. "I'm looking for four tons! I need four tons!" shouts Pachard, beckoning more monstrosities to take their shot at the blond, buxom and relatively svelte Kat. Sindee Williams, who heads up the Web site www.FatXXX.com and helped sound the cattle call for the casting process, proudly declares, "We're fat, and we're beautiful!" while consuming any cock in sight.

Often wandering away from the sex to dive into the snack table, the girls have multilayered guts and gargantuan, rippled asses strewn with stretch marks, operative scars, scaly pimples and cellulite bulges. Even Spallone can't defend his production: "This is some sick shit, really disgusting," he mutters before bellowing, "Hey, move your big ass, you're blocking the sun!" Fluffer Pamela Peaks attempts to give the men head, struggling to locate their prongs under rolls of belly jelly.

Although the weigh-in scale doesn't work, the couch in the waiting room snaps in half when three of the larger girls pile onto it for a group photo, providing some gauge of the event's monumental proportions. Star attraction Kat Kleevage ultimately gushes, "I'm happy: I'm the 300lb. Gangbang champion—and no one can dispute that!"

Surveying his own handiwork, Spallone cracks, "Yeah, I know I'm going to hell, but after this, I figure they'll hand me the pitchfork, and I can run the place."

Hooray for Hollywood: Holly demonstrates her audition technique.

New Breed #8: Miko, stunned by Mika's back draft.

Temptress: Carmen feels horny—get it?

Cursed: Julie Meadows, living voodoo doll.

New Breed #8

Directed by Jules Jordan.
Starring Mika Tan, Miko Lee, Luna, August, Kennedy, Cherie and Jules Jordan.
Videocassette: Pleasure Productions.

New Breed #8 is the perfect means for director Jules Jordan to dip his stick into a bevy of exotic honeypots. Busty Asian party girls Mika Tan and Miko Lee get so frisky with the director and each other that they peel off their clothes and polish his knob on the drive over to their secluded fuck spot. Once there, they go at it again in a tangle of writhing skin. Luna, a spirited adult teen with firm chest pillows, pleasures her beef flaps with a glass dildo to prime her snatch for an unbridled hammering, and Kennedy, a butterscotch slut bomb, slurps on Jordan's bone with complete abandon. The rest of the cast is equally mouthwatering and eager to play, and every slut is rewarded with a thick beard of nut butter. The self-indulgent director could use some judicious editing, but he's assembled such a stack of amazing ginches that New Breed #8 need go no further than the casting couch.

—J.P.

Cursed

Directed by Chloe.
Starring Julie Meadows, Chloe, Daisy Chain, Holly Hollywood, Kylie Ireland, Chris Cannon, Kyle Stone, Eric Masterson, Randy Spears, Steve Hatcher and Pat Myne.
Videocassette: VCA Pictures.

After Julie Meadows buys a mysterious mask at a Mexican curio shop in Cursed, the golden-tressed fuck bucket discovers that every oaf who drills her vanishes the moment he sprays cock snot. Horrified because she has a fiance whom she does not want to make disappear, Julie tries to pawn off the magical trinket on unhappy wife Kylie Ireland. The busty redhead desperately humps hubby Randy Spears in a bid to make the greasy swordsman dematerialize; sadly, Spears is unaffected by the power of the mask. Julie's boffs, however, gratifyingly evaporate porn beefcakes Chris Cannon, Steve Hatcher and Pat Myne. Meadows is sure to earn fist-pumping accolades for her multiple ruts, particularly a D.P.-stuffed threesome. Happily stupid and crammed with energetic violations, Cursed is a blessing for fun-loving strokers.

—C.T.

Temptress

Directed by Nic Cramer.
Starring Carmen Luvana, Petra, August, Juliana Kincaid, Brittany Skye, Julian, Joel Lawrence, Tony Tedeschi and Lee Stone.
Videocassette: New Sensations.

Soft-focus lenswork and a plot line about family togetherness give Temptress the feel of a cable-ready feature, but the couples-friendly flick delivers enough hard sex to satisfy serious jerkoffs. Sultry blonde Carmen Luvana plays the titular antiheroine, a devilish, supernatural nanny who lights up the lives of a sexually frustrated family like some XXX version of Mary Poppins. She's the raunchy demon on each family member's shoulder, inciting them to engage in the mind-blowing ruts they crave. August shines as the sweet tart who deflowers the "teenage" son (who looks 40), but Carmen's feverish cucumber rumbas are the main attraction. A steamy threesome with the teenage daughter and the gardener, plus the climactic twat-pounding when the devil-horned platinum blonde gyrates furiously on a veiny python, show that giving in to the Temptress ain't so bad after all.

GOING DOWN?

The blare of my alarm clock welcomed me into a seemingly mundane Monday. I spent the weekend wondering why I can't just have one spontaneous fuck every so often. I don't know how long it's been since I had a good pounding in the middle of a dark alley or the backseat of a car. All I knew is that I craved something exciting. After snapping back into reality, I got ready for work.

Waiting for an elevator is always a chore in my office building—they're too fucking slow. I mulled over my chaotic to-do list, thinking, I have to get those reports to Mr. Ahab before he throws a shit fit. My mental inventory of dread was interrupted by a voice inquiring, "Going down?" I surveyed the strapping young man who stood in front of me, sporting a gigantic bulge in his pants. I couldn't help but lick my yearning lips. It was Javier, the mailman.

He gazed at me with a grin. I pushed the button for the top floor and embarked on my mission to have my coochie reamed by the postal hunk, the first phase of which entailed lifting up my red skirt so that Javier could have a close encounter with my scrumptious love canal. I bent over, never taking my eyes off him, and slid my middle finger downward to sample the sweet honey that oozed from my fragrant snatch. Javier stared at me as if I were out of my gourd, but I knew he wanted to park his chorizo in my pink taco all the same. First, it was necessary for me to wolf down his overstuffed burrito.

Some girls start by sucking the fleshy mushroom tip. That's too predictable. I like to lick and juggle a guy's tender man sacs in my warm mouth first. Javier had no idea what he was in for: I crooned while I sucked on his rock-hard cock, just like my mom enjoys humming Gloria Gaynor tunes while cleaning the house. It just shows how much I enjoy it. Surprisingly, Javier wasn't taken aback once I got into the first verse. By the time I reached the chorus, I knew the delivery boy was enjoying my lap-flute solo by the way he grabbed my soft, blond hair and shoved his meat parcel farther down my vibrating organ pipe. By this time, my succulent groin pouch was ready to be stuffed.

I slid my suit jacket off, hung it neatly on his mail cart and, with the most innocent look, said, "Please don't cream on my blazer." Javier nodded obsequiously; I issued a Tony the Tiger growl and commanded him to rip my drenched panties off. The Latin lover bent me over, grabbed my soaking-wet G-string and rended it off with one tug, giving my plump, ripe ass a playful slap that sent shivers of ecstasy up my spine. I turned around and tore my white-collared blouse open, revealing my perky man pacifiers.

Using his elevator master key, he stopped the car between floors and told me to hang on. I gripped the steel handles along the back wall as if my life depended on it. He lifted my ass up in the air so that I faced the floor as he spread my legs apart. Like Mr. Toad, I was in for a wild ride. Javier tugged on my white, lace garter belt with his teeth and wrested it off as well. Bringing my snatch to his face, he munched on my clean-shaven peach like a starved dog, and I rode his mouth like a bucking bronco. "Fuck me hard," I moaned. Giving me a lascivious glare, he stood up and drove his hefty man shaft into my juicy tunnel. He pounded my pussy until we felt the car swaying back and forth. I pushed back, drilling his one-eyed monster deeper into my nether cave. Javier grunted, signaling the imminent eruption of his ball sac. I turned around and wrapped my greedy lips around his shaft, letting every drop of his nut batter slither down my throat.

I dressed and thanked Javier for the ride. Later that day, I'm sure he was pleasantly surprised to receive a manila envelope with the items of clothing he had relieved me of. I don't know when I'll ever have a good, spontaneous fuck like that again, and I don't want to. I'll leave it up to serendipity.

-C. H.

Doctor Approved Pill Will Enlarge Your Penis up to 4 Inches!

"This pill really works. I am now a harder 9 inches, which makes me feel good about myself. Besides wanting to be bigger, I always got soft to soon. Now that doesn't happen anymore. I'm hard like a rock from start to finish. I don't stop until she says 'you are terrific' and cums right along with me." -JS, Ohio

You Will Have These Penis Gains In A Few Weeks!

Just imagine when your sex partner sees how thick and long and hard you are. How about when men will gasp with envy the first time they see the new you in a locker room, shower or gym. Your larger penis will give you the confidence to meet the challenge of any woman. Penetrate deeper and see just how much greater satisfaction your sex partner will have. You will feel in total command because now any possibility of going soft, and premature ejaculation will be eliminated with your new rock hard much larger penis.

HOW DOES PRO+PLUS PILLS ENLARGE YOUR PENIS?

The corpa cavernosa are the two spongy bodies of erectile tissue on either side of the penis. An erection is caused by blood filling the erectile tissues. But what if the erectile tissues were made larger? What if you could somehow expand the size of the erectile tissues? Then of course the erectile tissues would hold more blood and you would have a significantly larger penis. Blow up a balloon with more air and you have a larger balloon. Fill the erectile tissues with more blood and you have a larger penis. Without any effort on you part, without any exercising, pumping or stretching, PRO+PLUS PILLS will expand the erectile tissues longer and wider and fill the erectile tissues with a larger supply of blood so that your penis will gain up to 4 inches in what has been described as a miracle. You can make that miracle happen. You can have the penis size you always dreamed of with the PRO+PLUS PILL and we GUARANTEE IT!

IS YOUR PENIS SIZE AVERAGE?

You probably have heard or read somewhere the average penis size is about 6 inches. If your penis is 6 inches and you want to be average then don't read any further. But if your not satisfied with an average or less then average size penis, the PRO+PLUS PILLS will help you grow up to 4 inches and it is perfectly safe and it is your secret because you can take the PRO+PLUS PILLS without anyone knowing that you are taking it.

HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO ENLARGE YOUR PENIS?

In a couple of weeks the most noticeable change will be the width of your penis and longer lasting erections. Then after a month or two you will see a change in the length of your penis and again you will notice a thicker and wider penis. As you stand in front of a mirror you will be amazed even without an erection how your penis wil 'hang' longer and thicker. After the third month when you have an erection you will see a very noticeable change. Not just in size but your penis will look firmer, stronger then you ever dreamed possible. No pill sold anywhere can give you the maximum potential you want in two months. Why settle for less when you can have much more. You need three to four months to grow to your maximum potential and we offer special prices for a three or four months supply with a 100% MONEY BACK GUARANTEE AND FREE OFFER!

WHAT EXACTLY IS THE PRO+PLUS PILLS?

Discovered by Dr. Dmitri Zorken and his research team PRO+PLUS PILLS is a powerful natural herbal penis enlargement formula that increases penis size, stronger erections and maintains your sexual virility. Combining the formulations of the type of herbs found in many parts of the world that can enlarge the penis erectile tissues. We also included some of the same type of herbs found in Polynesia where the men of the Mangaian tribe have sex on the average of 3 times a night, every night. While this is not what you may wish, it is nice to know your sexual performance can improve substantially.

HOW BIG IS BIG AND HOW MUCH DO YOU NEED TO SATISFY YOUR PARTNER?

Consider the difference between a 7, 8 or 9 inch penis that is thicker and a penis that is 4 to 6 inches and narrower. With a larger penis you penetrate more sensitive areas of the woman. Your longer penis probes deeper searching those special nerve endings. The added width to your penis fills and presses her from side to side to give your partner the most exhilarating sensations. It is possible for you to reach the most sensitive area of all, a woman's G-spot. These sensations will produce for a woman the ultimate multiple orgasms. At the same time because you are reaching a woman's most sensitive areas with your larger penis you will receive more pleasure to your sensitive nerve endings. Just knowing you are giving your partner this pleasurable experience will certainly give you the added confidence of being a better lover.

WHAT WILL THE PRO+PLUS PILLS DO FOR ME?

- A longer, thicker penis. Penis Enlargement up to 4 inches or more
- A longer, thicker penis even when you are not hard. Because there is more blood flow to the penis, your penis 'hangs' larger all day.
- You will have bigger, harder erections. Because of increased blood flow your erections grow harder.
- Erections when you want them. Rock hard erections every time. No more problems because you can't get it up and keep it up. PRO+PLUS PILLS will keep the blood flowing to your penis so you will always get hard and stay hard.
- Stronger and more intense orgasms
- Stop premature ejaculations
- Safely enhance the size of your penis.

WILL THE PENIS ENLARGEMENT BE PERMANENT?

Yes it is and you control the growth because once you reach your optimum size you could stop taking PRO+PLUS PILLS for Penis Enlargement. We say you could stop taking the PRO+PLUS PILLS because it is not necessary to be larger then 9 or 10 inches. Most women can only comfortably accommodate a 9 or 10 inch penis. Anything larger then that may be too large for most woman. Nine inches or more than 9 inches, the choice is yours.

Why Didn't Anyone Think Of This Before?

Doctor's Sex-Boosting Skin Patch Offers Dramatically More Sex, More Often... Whether You're 18 or 80!

A MEDICAL DOCTOR'S AMAZING NEW VIRILITY PATCH GIVES YOU MAXIMUM PERFORMANCE, STAMINA, AND GROWTH ANYTIME, ANYPLACE – EVEN WHILE YOU SLEEP!

WHAT YOUR LOVER SECRETLY SAYS BEHIND YOUR BACK!

According to a recent national survey, 87% of women asked if they were satisfied with their lover's performance answered with a resounding "No." The most common reasons given were their male lovers' inability to bring them to climax due to lack of stamina, arousal, and erectile size. But now an amazing, new, doctor-endorsed virility patch quickly and effortlessly turns a woman's disappointed "No" into a euphoric "Yes, yes, YES!!"

V-PATCH (virility patch) is a powerful new male virility technology that took a top team of scientists almost ten years to develop. V-PATCH is NOT a prescription drug; it is not a pill or powder; it is not a creme, lotion, or spray. V-PATCH is the first male potency herbal formula that utilizes a state-of-the-art delivery system.

You've read about the effectiveness of dermal patch technology in such respected publications as Time, Newsweek, and The New York Times helping people to stop smoking, lose weight, and now even for birth control. However, V-PATCH is the first high-tech patch designed to dramatically increase male potency and improve sexual performance. V-PATCH is so advanced that it's light years beyond any other botanical sexual enhancement product on the market today. No sexual potency supplement works faster, is more effective, or is easier to use than V-PATCH. But there's more... much more!

MORE DESIRE! MORE SEX! MORE OFTEN!

What exactly will V-PATCH do for you? V-PATCH will supercharge your sexual battery fast and effortlessly 24/7. Your libido, energy level, and sexual performance will soar. Your erections will be bigger, harder, thicker, and you'll satisfy your lover like never before.

In fact, acclaimed urologist Albert O'Conner, MD, enthusiastically recommends V-PATCH to his male patients as the safest, most effective, 100% natural way to achieve maximum erectile growth quickly and easily. And that's just the beginning of Dr. O'Conner's praise for V-PATCH. Dr. O'Conner believes "V-PATCH's proprietary patch delivery system is arguably the single greatest scientific breakthrough ever for increasing male desire, stamina, and performance effortlessly anytime, anyplace!"

V-PATCH'S TECHNOLOGY IS EASY, FAST, AND EFFORTLESS!

Here's how it works: V-PATCH is a small, super concentrated dermal patch that you place discreetly on your body as directed. Once V-PATCH is in place, you can relax... your part is done. The exclusive V-PATCH delivery system automatically takes over. You don't even have to pay attention, but you'll feel V-PATCH's power at work almost immediately.

Unlike pills or capsules that must go through the digestive process, V-PATCH's advanced patch technology sends the active ingredients full strength directly into the blood stream for fast, maximum results. Yes, it's really that simple to use.

V-PATCH supercharges your sexual battery 24/7: at home; at work; and at play. Even while you sleep, V-PATCH continues on its relentless mission to transform you into a fine-tuned, throbbing, rock-hard, unstoppable sex machine. Men using V-PATCH report having more sex, lasting longer, achieving massive erections, and experiencing explosive orgasm after explosive orgasm.

MEET YOUR V-PATCH DOCTOR: ALBERT O'CONNER, MD

V-PATCH is the first and only male potency formula ever to be recommended and endorsed by acclaimed urologist Albert O'Conner, MD. Dr. O'Conner is a professor of medicine and Chief of Medical Education. He is Chief of Urology, as well as a member of his hospital's Board of Directors. Currently, he serves on the Council and College of Urology, and is past secretary of his State Medical Society. Dr. O'Conner credits V-PATCH's powerful, all-natural, botanical formula along with its unique patch delivery system as a major breakthrough in increasing male arousal and maximum erectile growth.

For a limited time, you can try V-PATCH for yourself at the incredibly low price of only $39.95 for a 30 day supply. Or SAVE $49.90 and get a full 90 day supply for only $69.95. That's right! You can experience V-PATCH's around-the-clock power for less than 78¢ a day. Sex Appeal In A Bottle!

UNIVERSITY STUDY PROVES CONCLUSIVELY PHEROMONE ADDITIVE ATTRACTS OPPOSITE SEX!

Nature's Only Aphrodisiac

Pheromones are odorless chemicals naturally secreted by the body that increase sexual attractiveness through the sense of smell. Scientists believe the greater the pheromone secretion, the greater the sexual attraction. The problem: many people wash away most of their natural pheromones when they bathe. The solution: Attractant 1000+, a powerful, synthetic, unscented pheromone concentrate scientifically designed to attract the opposite sex. But does it really work?

The scientific evidence is now conclusive. Adding synthetic human pheromones to your cologne has been proven to dramatically increase sex appeal and attract more lovers effortlessly. As reported in the September 2002 issue of Prevention magazine, a recent study at San Francisco State University proves that after only two months, a remarkable 74% of those using a synthetic pheromone-laced scent reported a significant increase in dates, kissing, heavy petting, physical affection, and, yes, more sex!

World's #1 Pheromone Concentrate Goes Gold

Introducing the new, improved Attractant 1000+ Gold Label formula. Be warned: just a few drops of Attractant 1000+'s extra-strength, unscented formula is up to one thousand times more powerful than normal pheromone secretion. Easy, fast, and discreet, Attractant 1000+ adds instant sex appeal to aftershaves, colognes, or even when worn by itself.

Become A Powerful Sex Magnet

Conduct your own intimate, scientific study on the sex power of pheromones. Order new, extra-strength Attractant 1000+ Gold Label today. Remember, it's biology and chemistry. The most beautiful and desirable women are powerless to resist the seductive lure of Attractant 1000+.

ACTIVATOR Passion-Stimulation Creme

DOCTOR'S ORGASMIC BREAKTHROUGH

ACTIVATE HER deepest desire and passion so she's always ready and eager for steamy, intimate bedroom action. Just a couple drops of Activator's proven formula can help propel her into overwhelming orgasmic bliss. With Activator you'll satisfy her over and over like she has never been satisfied before.

SHE'LL BEG YOU FOR MORE

The secret of Activator is yours and yours alone. It's your decision whether to share this passion-stimulation formula with her or allow her to experience its orgasmic power only when you're with her.

Either way, Activator puts you firmly in the driver's seat: she'll want you; she'll wait for you; and she'll think about you. With Activator you're in complete control of her passion, her desire, her ultimate pleasure and satisfaction. But remember Activator can ignite her deepest and strongest carnal instincts and unleash raw female animal passion that you might not be ready for... so use Activator with caution and respect.

THE ACTIVATOR GENIUS

Dr. Chris Pachex, MD, Board Certified OB/GYN, discovered the amazing stimulating benefits of Activator's proprietary formula in his quest to help his many female patients who failed to achieve orgasm during sex. By using only a small amount of Activator creme, many of these once unresponsive women began to experience not just one, but multiple orgasms.

SPECIAL EDITION: THE GIRLS OF MAUI COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Gina maintains a busy academic life at Maui Community College. Double-majoring in business and biology, the seductive 22-year-old sophomore also minors in art and photography, and works hard to keep her solid 3.0 GPA. Although volleyball and surfing help Gina unwind from the daily grind of schoolwork, the curious babe secretly fantasizes about the ultimate study break of "getting really stoned and eating a lot of pussy."

$5,000 IS UP FOR GRABS

Guys, we need you to be HUSTLER's campus point men in our ongoing search for new, untapped Beavers. Do you know gorgeous college students who are over 18 years of age? We're looking for readers to recruit babes for the Real College Girls division of Beaver Hunt. The process is easy; just snap a couple of clear, sexy—the more explicit the better—photographs (digital shots are cool too, as long as they're high resolution and printed on photo-quality paper). Send them to Real College Girls, 8484 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 900, Beverly Hills, CA 90211. Every female whose picture sees print will receive a $250 honorarium, as well as a slot in HUSTLER's 2003 Beaver Hunt competition and a chance to appear in the video version of HUSTLER's Real College Girls. Finalists score $1,500 each, and the Grand Prize winner will appear in a HUSTLER photo-feature and earn $5,000. The photographer of the Grand Prize winner scores $500, and the Finalists' photographers earn $250. All photographers of models appearing in Real College Girls receive a one-year subscription to HUSTLER. Ask the girls to fill out the model release below, and include copies of two legal forms of ID and a current college ID. The model's photo, date of birth and signature must appear on the IDs (not necessarily all on the same one). All photos become the unreturnable property of L.F.P., Inc. No essays are required, but if your model can come up with something sexy, tell her to knock herself out.

MODEL RELEASE/ENTRY FORM

To enter Real College Girls or Video College Girls you must be 18 years of age or older, and you must fill out and send this release and copies of two forms of ID, one with photo (i.e., driver's license, passport or photo ID issued by state). Second ID can be a birth certificate, Social Security card, credit card, marriage certificate or immigration card. One ID must include your date of birth, and one must include your signature. Send photocopies, not originals. Send two or more sharply focused color prints or slides. Send videotapes in VHS format. Showing pink is optional at entry stage. All photos and videos become the unreturnable property of L.F.P., Inc., which buys all rights in perpetuity to photos and videos we purchase. Win $250 if we publish your photo, or $500 if we choose your video, and win the chance to be in an extended pictorial or feature video worth $5,000. Send photos, videos, IDs and release to Real College Girls, 8484 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 900, Beverly Hills, CA 90211.

HUSTLER: How did they know the reports were in there?

PICOU: Apparently, because of the phone call. We were on a network call.

HUSTLER: What kind of threatening calls had you received?

PICOU: They would hold a device to their throat and say, "I know you're going to Washington. And if I were you, I'd take a different route," and, "If I were you, I'd quit testifying." Vietnam veterans called me and said, "You ought to be careful; they're watching you." You could just feel that somebody was watching the home. It was an uneasy feeling. And when we finally did get to testify—three of us had testified—one guy was stabbed in the lung, and his hands were tied behind his back in a cornfield. One of the doctors that had testified, his laboratory was messed up. One of the colonels had tried to bring information about Desert Storm—his stuff was confiscated. It was pretty interesting to see all these things developing over the years. I brought back sand samples and tried to have them analyzed. I sent them to a lab in Canada; the lab was broken into and destroyed. It's very frustrating.

HUSTLER: One excuse given early on by officials was that the illnesses were due to shell shock.

PICOU: I went through two weeks of psychiatry, and they did every possible psychological test they could to try and say that this was stress-related.

HUSTLER: Do you believe Gulf War Syndrome is due to a combination of the depleted uranium and the pills you were given?

PICOU: I think it was exposures to the fallout from the depleted uranium. I went back to Iraq in 1997 to do a film documentary on the effects of the depleted uranium and [to see] if it was affecting the Iraqi soldiers and Iraqi people like it had affected the people in America. People who lived in Nevada, where they actually tested [depleted uranium], were sick and dying with cancer. [In] Jonesborough, Tennessee, is a plant where they manufacture it. The plant workers started getting sick. The people that live within one mile downwind from the plant in Massachusetts where they manufactured the depleted uranium have heavy cancer rates. Aberdeen Proving Grounds was an open-air site [where depleted uranium was tested], and those people were complaining of high cancer rates. We just paid billions of dollars to clean up that site just a few years ago. Everywhere this depleted uranium was used or tested or mined, people were getting sick. I thought, What about Desert Storm soldiers? Could this be the major cause of our illness? Looking at how many Desert Storm soldiers were sick and dying, I thought, Okay, my best bet is to go back to Iraq and see if we can find if it's still radioactive six years later after the war, because its half-life is 4.1 billion years. I went back to Iraq and went through the same battle zone that I had originally gone through during the war. We tested some of the tanks with alpha rays and gamma rays, and realized that they were still radioactive six, seven years later. I met with some Iraqi soldiers that were there in that battle zone, and they had brain tumors just like my friends had brain tumors. They had Lou Gehrig's Disease. They had developed thyroid problems just like I did. They developed muscle loss. They were having the same symptoms we were. They didn't take the anthrax or the botulinum or the pyridostigmine, but they were exposed to all the chemical fallouts that we were.

HUSTLER: Has the rate of leukemia gone up in Iraq?

PICOU: The amount of cancer that has risen in Iraq is phenomenal. They had a one-percent prewar cancer rate, and when I went back in 1997, their cancer rate was like 17%. [There were] children with leukemia. I met women who were in the bomb areas outside the Al-Rashid Hotel [in Baghdad], and they started developing breast cancer, which is unusual for them because they didn't have a high rate of cancer prior to the war. We dropped thousands of pounds of depleted uranium in the Iraqi land. It's highly radioactive. When I went back, the animals were mutating, camels were born with birth defects. The water chain was contaminated; the food chain was contaminated. We've left them in massive devastation.

HUSTLER: Won't it be dangerous for our soldiers if we invade Iraq again?

PICOU: Oh, yeah, because it's still radioactive. Not only are we exposing them, but we're still using the same weapon system. They will have a double dose of what they're gonna be exposed to. If we use the Abrams tanks and the A-10 [aircraft]—one out of every five rounds in the helicopters is a depleted-uranium round. It is an armor-piercing round, and it stops everything. Our generals will gladly tell you that they'll use it again. And the United States has. If this is a chemical and biological and radioactive weapon, according to the Geneva Code of Conventions, it should not be used. We're in violation of the Geneva Code of Conventions, because we've used a radioactive weapon without anybody's knowledge.

HUSTLER: The VA now admits that 36% of Gulf War veterans have filed claims?

PICOU: Yes. As a matter of fact, that number's rising. I think they had over 236,000 claims, maybe even more. It was such a short battle; it was, what, a four-day battle?

HUSTLER: What would you say to soldiers today who might be on their way to Iraq?

PICOU: Take care of yourself. Wear your protective stuff. Take notes. Take photos. Write down everything that you see that is suspicious. And cover your butt. We say, "CYA," cover your ass, because nobody else is going to.

Burning Semen Syndrome

GULF WAR VETS EXPERIENCE PAINFULLY HOT SEX

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists recently released a study on burning semen syndrome, a rare but well-documented malady affecting Gulf War veterans. Of the 211 respondents to the researchers' survey, 188 "had either personally experienced burning after contact with their own semen or had a sexual partner who had burning after contact with their semen." Symptoms also include pain and swelling in the male's urogenital tract.

The syndrome is similar to seminal plasma hypersensitivity, a condition in which females in the general population experience burning from contact with ejaculate. However, in the case of the latter, condoms almost always prevent the woman from experiencing pain, whereas less than 50% of the partners of Gulf War veterans experienced relief of symptoms with the use of a condom.

The researchers do not know the exact cause of the toxic cum, but one clinician speculates that veterans may have come in contact with chemicals in Iraq that altered the proteins in their ejaculate. There is hope for sufferers of scorching semen; the treatment involves gradually exposing women with shots that contain proteins from the men's semen until the tainted sperm no longer harms the women's vaginas.

My dick is a mallet. I could play a round of croquet with my petrified woody.

The alprostadil is contained within a tiny pellet encased in the clear, plastic cock cartridge. Restore the Feeling instructs me to urinate first in order to achieve a "moist urethra" that will help the flea-sized penis pill dissolve. After pissing, I pinch and pull at my pud to ensure pliability. I jam the cold, two-inch proboscis inside my dick hole. At first, it doesn't go in more than half an inch, and it pops out, almost as if my cock had puked it back up. I finally manage to thrust the applicator in deep, ever fearful of the booklet's admonition that one wrong jiggle could cause painful bleeding.

Once the thin, spiky tube is fully plunged down into my urethra, I press down on a button that, hopefully, releases the pellet. Then comes the most uncomfortable part—I have to wiggle the device inside my urethra for five seconds to make sure the tablet is dislodged. To ensure that the drug is evenly distributed, I remove the tube and massage my cock as if I'm rolling dough.

Initially, the drug afflicts my phallus with an uncomfortably hot sensation, as if someone's burning a Zippo lighter inside my manhood, but the feeling soon fades. In ten minutes, my cock is hard enough to knock someone unconscious.

My girlfriend says things such as, "Jesus Christ, you're hard like steel!" and then, "Oh, my God—you're in so deep!" and finally, "Okay, okay, you're gonna have to stop, or I'm gonna pass out."

She tells me she lost count after her eighth orgasm. After a half hour of fuel-injected, eight-cylinder pumping, I shoot a grateful load.

I won't tell her I've used the penile pill until the next morning. At one point during the night, my girlfriend reaches over, gasps and says, "Sweet baby Jesus, you're hard again!" But I'm not really hard "again"—I'm still hard. My dick is a mallet. I could play a round of croquet with my petrified woody. I remain a slab of pink granite for nearly two hours after I come. Mesmerized by my tool's pesky firmness, the ol' lady squeezes my ramrod in her hand with such force that I think my cock will pop off my body in a bloody explosion. I yelp with pain. She apologizes.

Despite the fact that MUSE made me harder than Viagra did—almost frighteningly hard, satanically hard, even—I'm sorry to report that the urethral medication boasts none of Viagra's drug-like euphoria. Arousal and hardness aren't always the same thing. The piss-hole pellet affected my cock, but not my mind. MUSE gets a perfect score for its cantilever-like erection-conjuring skills, but it did zilch for my libido.

Restore the Feeling claims that MUSE would give me a "natural-feeling erection," which is false. Rather, my bone felt uncomfortably swollen, as if 100,000 Kurds had fled Iraqi persecution and were seeking asylum within my cock. The booklet also cautions that a man shouldn't use MUSE if he has "an abnormally formed penis." In my case, not to worry; my penis is so beautifully shaped, they should hang it in a museum, I swear.

MUSE is a cultural oddity destined to fail in the pharmaceutical boner sweepstakes. It's a marketing disaster, the Edsel and The Chevy Chase Show of the chemically induced erection market all wrapped into one disgusting plastic injector.

Thankfully, MUSE is already obsolete. Other companies are releasing alprostadil-based products that don't require syringes or urethral insertion. Topiglan (by MacroChem) is a cream, yet to be approved in the U.S., that uses alprostadil and is smeared on your glans penis. A similar ointment called Befar (by NexMed) has been approved in Hong Kong and is helping to make countless Asian penises look slightly less pathetic than they normally would.

Those who intend to receive a blowjob after using boner cream might want to warn their partners that alprostadil supposedly tastes really bad. Men with pregnant partners should probably know that alprostadil is rumored to have fetus-killing properties. One's mind imagines precedent-setting court cases to determine whether killing an unborn baby by coming on it constitutes murder. But all medications have their side effects, and guys who want to make their limp dicks rock-hard must weigh the risks against the rewards.

"Only 59,999 more, and your house will be paid off."

ASS TRANSIT

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MATTI KLATT

Gia is blessed with delectable, saucer-sized nipples and a booty to kill for. The broken-down '76 Chevy Nova Gia depends on is more of a curse. "I may be a HUSTLER model, but I have to get to work on time just like everybody else," Gia says while waiting for the 8:15 to Canoga Park.

"I don't do hitchhiking," Gia insists, "so don't bother offering me a ride.
I'm not stuck up or anything. I love screwing strangers, but today,
I'm saving my pussy for HUSTLER.
Somebody has to pay for my car repairs."

>>WHEN CORPORATIONS ATTACK

The mainstream media missed the real Enron scandal; Ken Lay's sleaze factory was just one of numerous megacorporations snatching up the world's water and energy supplies, which were once held in public trust. Even worse, no longer content with fleecing Third World countries, self-serving companies like Enron have now set their sights on America's resources. In his book Fat Cats and Running Dogs: The Enron Stage of Capitalism, Vijay Prashad, Director of International Studies at Trinity College, uncovers the bottomless greed of rogue corporations. Find out what's in store and what you can do about it in an eye-opening HUSTLER interview.

>>PEACHES

A raunchy female rapper with songs like "Fuck the Pain Away," "Cum Undun" and "Suck and Let Go," Peaches is at the head of a whole pack of musical nymphos in the new electro-clash movement. HUSTLER correspondent Charlie Amter delivers an in-depth profile of the Madonna of the porn generation and samples the other electro-sluts making the scene.

>>BEAT IT TO DEATH

Think carpal tunnel syndrome is the worst possible side effect of whacking off? Think again. From auto-erotic asphyxiation to even more bizarre sexual thrills gone fatally wrong, HUSTLER reporters Mark Cromer and Michael Collins explore the dark intersection where sex and death collide.
